

NYU's Used Books

Instead of tossing NYU's leftover books into the landfill, let's turn these books into cash!

All year, every year, The NYU Bookstore will pick up ALL unwanted books from NYU's departments and faculty.

Any books that can't be resold or which have no value will be shipped to NYU's book donation partners, Bridge to Asia (www.bridge.org) or Books for Africa (www.booksforafrica.org).

Please contact the NYU Bookstore at 998-4673 or by e-mail at donatebooks@nyu.edu to arrange for a book pick-up. You should tell the Bookstore approximately how many books or boxes of books you have for pick up; if you do not have boxes, the Bookstore can deliver boxes to you.

 When you schedule a book pick up, be sure to tell the Bookstore that the proceeds from any resale of the books should be credited to the AMC/Community Service account established for this purpose.
