

IDENTITY: EMAIL

When properly used, mass email is a powerful tool for conducting business swiftly, without generating large amounts of paper.

GUIDELINES

NYU Email Direct is a bulk email service through which preauthorized NYU faculty, staff, and administrators can request to send an email message to a well-defined segment or segments of the University community.

Email Direct uses HTML or rich email templates that allow for photos, graphics, and type to be combine into visually interesting layouts.

Email Direct templates are convenient to use, compliant with brand identity guidelines, and web and mobile friendly.

To sign up for an account or request assistance with a custom HTML email template, please use the project request form.
