CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Multiple (Eye)dentity Series: Hafu Film Screening
6:30PM - 8 PM | Kimmel 802 | 60 Washington Square South
With an ever increasing movement of people between places in this transnational age, there is a mounting number of mixed-race people in Japan, some visible others not. The film follows the lives of five "hafus," the Japanese term for people who are half-Japanese, as they explain what it means to be multiracial in Japan that once proudly proclaimed itself as the mono-ethnic nation. RSVP via bit.ly/cmepevents.

Unpacking Whiteness
12 PM - 1:30 PM | LGBTQ Lounge (Kimmel 602) | 60 Washington Square South
This discussion group is an opportunity for undergraduates & graduates:
- Deconstruct the complexities and realities of white privilege
- Examine our own biases, prejudices and stereotypes
- Identify ways in which we can all stand in solidarity against systems of oppression
Snacks will be served! Please RSVP via bit.ly/cmepevents.

Are YOU a Global Nomad? Culture Shifter? World Traveler? Third Culture Kid?
12:30PM - 1:30PM | Kimmel 806 | 60 Washington Square South
Are you a Global Nomad? What IS a Global Nomad? Do you consider yourself a fusion of multiple cultures? You are NOT ALONE! Come share with us your international experiences and stories! We will meet every Monday from 12:30pm-1:30pm in CMep, Kimmel 806, starting on March 31st. Lunch will be served - please RSVP via bit.ly/cmepevents.

Graduate Students of Color Dinner
5 PM - 7 PM | Kimmel 405 | 60 Washington Square South
The Graduate Students of Color Dinner Series provides an intimate opportunity to graduate students of color to hear from faculty of color about their individual journeys and experiences in navigating academia and other professional arenas. This program is in partnership with Graduate Student Life at the Student Resource Center. Please RSVP via bit.ly/cmepevents - space is limited!

Blurring the Color Lines
12:30PM-1:30PM | Kimmel 802 | 60 Washington Square South
This discussion group is an opportunity for undergraduate and graduate students to:
- Share stories and experiences as it relates to race at NYU, in and out of the classroom
- Discuss ways in which to deal with microaggressions and other triggers
- Identify ways in which we can all stand in solidarity against systems of oppression
Snacks will be served! Please RSVP via bit.ly/cmepevents.

Take A Break with CMep
12:30PM - 2PM | Kimmel 806 | 60 Washington Square South
Rejuvenate, Relate and Release as you join us in NYUCMep for our monthly Take-A-Break series. Meet new and old friends, play games, watch a movie, have a snack or get a massage, and learn more about NYUCMep. Each break is different. All students are welcome to attend. RSVP to laurel.haynes@nyu.edu or epw249@nyu.edu

Take a Photo.
Attend an Event.
Sign the Pledge.
Become an NYU ALLY.
FOR MORE INFO VISIT nyu.edu/allyweek
Questions: Jimmy Suarez at jimmy.suarez@nyu.edu

Diversity Zone: Race, Class & Ethnicity
11 AM - 1 PM | Kimmel 806 | 60 Washington Square South
Diversity Zone training is designed to explore the basic issues that surround race, class, and ethnicity. Open to students, staff and faculty. Diversity Zone provides participants with tools and information on the roots, construction and perpetuation of these social identities as well as a basic understanding of the systems of privilege and oppression at work in our society. Sign up at nyu.edu/cmep. Questions: Jimmy Suarez at jimmy.suarez@nyu.edu

DREAM Zone
4 PM - 6 PM | CMep Lounge (Kimmel 806) | 60 Washington Square South
DREAM Zone is an interactive training designed to explore the basic issues that surround the undocumented community, with a focus on undocumented students. CMep provides a basic review of federal and local policies, discusses some of the issues undocumented students face specifically at NYU, and explores ways in which to be a better advocate and ally and create a more inclusive and supportive campus environment. Sign up nyu.edu/cmep.

-ISM Project Showcase
7 PM - 9 PM | Eisner & Lubin Auditorium | 60 Washington Square South
The -ISM Project Showcase features multimedia installations, video performances and other means of artistic expression around the creative exploration of various "-isms" in society as they relate to the intersections of social constructs and identities. Featuring Drake-ism, Olivia Pope and the Myth of Super Womanism, You Be the Next Recognition, Asian American Activism, HIV/AIDSism, I Am Not My Hijabism, If You Can't Do Then Teachism, and segregationism. Reception to follow with the -ISM Project developers.

Intergroup Dialogue Celebration
2:15PM - 4:15PM | Kimmel 804/805 | 60 Washington Square South
Come join us for a celebration of the NYU Intergroup Dialogue program! Hear from this year’s Intergroup Dialogue cohort as they reflect on what they’ve learned and how they plan to incorporate the principles of ISD into their everyday lives. Refreshments will be served. Please RSVP via bit.ly/cmepevents.

Graduate Students of Color Social
5 PM - 7 PM | Negril Village, 70 W. 3rd St (between LaGuardia & Thompson) | 60 Washington Square South
Graduate Students of Color Socials bring together graduate students of color and allies across disciplines to mix, mingle and build community! CMep Graduate Students of Color Socials are open to students, staff and faculty. More info at nyu.edu/cmep.

For More Info Visit nyu.edu/allyweek
Questions: Jimmy Suarez at jimmy.suarez@nyu.edu

2014 Social Justice Expo
11:30AM - 2 PM | Eisner & Lubin Auditorium | 60 Washington Square South
This exposition gathers New York City youth for an exhibition of their social actions. This event will showcase the breadth and depth to which NYC youth are organizing around issues such as child labor, teen pregnancy, gun violence, housing, minimum wage laws and education. Questions? Contact: Cornell Woolard at cornell@nyu.edu

2014 | APRIL/MAY
NYU Center for Multicultural Education and Programs