NYU Pricing Packages:

Jeff Barker Productions, Inc. basically provides menu formats for proposals and once items are selected by both the NYU client along with JBP, we then provide a package price.

Note: Many of our packages do not include any overtime rates for audio visual and theme events.

Below you will find various different packages from tents, job fairs and theme events. JBP also provides various services for Graduations and Convocations from a full turn key operation to only a certain service if needed. These events need to be priced out according to services provided.

Discount: JBP will normally provide NYU with a 15% overall discount on overall package pricing.
