Course Overview
Prerequisites: ITAL-UA9010.00 Intensive Elementary Italian or ITAL-UA9002.00 Elementary Italian II
Comprehension: to understand various oral and written texts related to basic needs, daily activities and more complex situations regarding personal interests, lifestyle, travel, art and culture; to collect the main points of video and audio transmissions and informative articles related to news and familiar topics, with transmissions in clear and slow-paced, spoken language and texts written in a linear fashion; to understand narratives and descriptions of events that describe sentiments and desires.
Production and interaction: to manage linguistically a good part of typical and routine situations in social life and to interact in conversations about familiar topics and daily life (for example: family, hobbies, work, travel, events of the day, etc.) without significant interruption; to produce mono-directional oral and written texts about known topics in a clear and comprehensible way; to describe events and reactions to events; to construct phrases that express desires, hopes, ambitions and beliefs. Language structures: grammar structures that are more complex, i.e., the Italian pronoun system, and in syntax, the various moods of the verb.

Course Goals

On completion of this course, students will be able to:

- will learn how to communicate using the language-objective only, and focusing their attention on the contents of the communication;
- will acquire linguistic control of practical-communicative functions like: telling about past events, comparing preferences and experiences, describing one’s state of health, expressing one’s tastes, to ask for something in a polite way, to express opinions, desires and advice, to formulate hypotheses;
- will learn how to reflect on the meaning of the tenses and moods of the Italian verb and the pronoun system;
- will master vocabulary related to topics such as, physical and personal characteristics, health and well-being, animals, celebrations, food and gastronomic traditions, habitats and stores, physical geography and politics, arts, media and advertising, the environment, ecology and lifestyle, transportation, jobs and professions, slang and youth culture, objects from daily life and design;
- will learn how to prepare oral presentations about known topics and demonstrate the capacity to manage mono-directional communication;
- will know how to produce written texts and some typologies, like diaries, summaries, comments, and narrations.

Note: Expected learning outcomes for each unit are indicated in the detailed weekly syllabus.

Course Requirements

Students will be graded based on the following criteria: the completion of tasks, projects and presentations; quizzes; class participation and homework; oral and written exams.

Assessment Expectations

Grade A
The Desired Outcomes are fully reached and supported by the results of the various tests (Quiz, Task, Presentation, Portfolio, Written and/or Oral Exams), which demonstrate that the student has acquired excellent linguistic comprehension, production and interaction for the determined level of competence. The student has furthermore manifested by his/her active and constructive behavior in class and in homework a profound commitment to going beyond the objectives of the course.

Grade B
The Desired Outcomes are reached completely and the results of the various tests (Quiz, Task, Presentation, Portfolio, Written and/or Oral Exams) demonstrate that the student has acquired a good linguistic comprehension, production and interaction for the determined competences. The student has furthermore manifested by his/her active participation in class and in homework a serious commitment to fully reaching the objectives of the course.

Grade C
The Desired Outcomes are reached in a satisfactory way and the results of the various tests (Quiz, Task, Presentation, Portfolio, Written and/or Oral Exams) demonstrate that the student has acquired an acceptable level of linguistic comprehension, production and interaction for the determined competences. The student has furthermore manifested by his/her positive behavior in class and in homework a satisfactory commitment to reaching the objectives of the course.

Grade D
The Desired Outcomes are reached to a degree that is barely sufficient to pass the course; the results of the various tests (Quiz, Task, Presentation, Portfolio, Written and/or Oral Exams) demonstrate that the student has acquired only a partial linguistic comprehension, production and interaction for the determined competences. The student has furthermore manifested by his/her behavior in class and in homework – only sporadically positive – a scarce commitment to reaching positive results.

Grade F
The Desired Outcomes are not reached in a sufficient way and the results of the various tests (Quiz, Task, Presentation, Portfolio, Written and/or Oral Exams) demonstrate that the student has not acquired the linguistic comprehension, production and interaction at a sufficient level for the determined competences. The student has furthermore failed to manifest by his/her behavior in class and in homework – inconsistent and often unfocused – a commitment to reaching the objectives of the course.

Academic Accommodations
Academic accommodations are available for students with documented disabilities. Please contact the Moses Center for Students with Disabilities at 212-998-4980 or see their website for further information.

Students with disabilities who believe that they may need accommodations in a class are encouraged to contact the Moses Center for Students with Disabilities at (212) 998-4980 as soon as possible to better ensure that such accommodations are implemented in a timely fashion. For more information, see Study Away and Disability.

Attendance Policy
Study abroad at Global Academic Centers is an academically intensive and immersive experience, in which students from a wide range of backgrounds exchange ideas in discussion-based seminars. Learning in such an environment depends on the active participation of all students. And since classes typically meet once or twice a week, even a single absence can cause a student to miss a significant portion of a course. To ensure the integrity of this academic experience, class attendance at the centers is mandatory, and unexcused absences will be penalized with a two percent deduction from the student’s final course grade. Students are responsible for making up any work missed due to absence. Repeated absences in a course may result in failure. For courses that meet once a week, one unexcused absence will be penalized by a two percent deduction from the student’s final course grade. For courses that meet two or more times a week, the same penalty will apply to the number of class times over a single week.

Excused Absences:
In case of absence, regardless of the reason, the student is responsible for completing missed assignments, getting notes and making up missed work in a timely manner based upon a schedule that is mutually agreed upon between the faculty member and the student. The only excused absences are those approved by the Office of Academic Support; they are as follows:

Absence Due to Illness
- If you are sick, please see a doctor. Contact the Office of Student Life for assistance.
• For absences that last for two or more consecutive days, a doctor’s certificate, “certificato medico” is required. The doctor will indicate in writing the number of days of bed rest required. Please note these certificates can only be obtained on the day you see the doctor and cannot be written for you afterwards.

• Absences can ONLY be excused if they are reported WITHIN 48 HRS of your return to class via the online NYU Florence Absence Form [insert new hyperlink]

• OAS will not accept a student email or telephone call regarding an absence due to illness

• OAS will only notify faculty of absences REPORTED on the ABSENCE FORM

• The Office of Student Life, when assisting you in cases of severe or extended illness, will coordinate with the Office of Academic Support to properly record your absences

Due to Religious Observance

• Students observing a religious holiday during regularly scheduled class time are entitled to miss class without any penalty to their grade. This is for the holiday only and does not include the days of travel that may come before and/or after the holiday

• Information regarding absences due to religious observance must be provided at least SEVEN DAYS PRIOR to the date(s) in question using the online NYU Florence Absence Form [insert new hyperlink]

• Please note that no excused absences for reasons other than illness can be applied retroactively.

Due to a class conflict with a program sponsored lecture, event, or activity

• All students are entitled to miss one class period without any penalty to their grade in order to attend a lecture, event or activity that is sponsored by La Pietra Dialogues, Acton Miscellany or the Graduate Lecture series.

• Information regarding absences due to a class conflict must be provided at least SEVEN DAYS PRIOR to the date(s) in question using the online NYU Florence Absence Form [insert new hyperlink]

• Please note that no excused absences for reasons other than illness can be applied retroactively.

Students with questions or needing clarification about this policy are instructed to contact a member of the Office of Academic Support located in Villa Ulivi or to email florence.academicsupport@nyu.edu

Late Submission of Work

• All course work must be submitted on time, in class on the date specified on the syllabus.

• To request an extension on a deadline for an assignment, students must speak to the professor one week prior to the due date

• To receive an incomplete for a course at the end of the semester, two weeks before final exams, both the student and the faculty member must meet with the Assistant Director of Academic Affairs to review the request and if granted, they must both sign an Incomplete Contract detailing the terms for completing missing coursework.
Plagiarism Policy

PLAGIARISM WILL NOT BE TOLERATED IN ANY FORM:
The presentation of another person’s words, ideas, judgment, images or data as though they were your own, whether intentionally or unintentionally, constitutes an act of plagiarism.

In the event of suspected or confirmed cases of plagiarism, The faculty member will consult first with the Assistant Director for Academic Affairs as definitions and procedures vary from school to school. Please consult the “Academic Guidelines for Success” distributed on your USB key at Check-in and on the NYU Florence Global Wiki.

For a detailed description of some possible forms of plagiarism and cheating please consult the Community Compact that you signed at Orientation, a copy of which is on the above mentioned Wiki and USB key.

Classroom Etiquette

- Eating is not permitted in the classrooms. Bottled water is permitted.
- Cell phones should be turned off during class time.

Your Instructor
Daniela Lateana was born and raised in Italy. She received her degree in Modern Italian Literature from the University of Florence with a final thesis in Comparative Literature entitled “Giuly Corsini tra pittura, scrittura, e carte d’Archivio.” In 2010, she attended the Training Course for Teachers of Italian as a foreign language (Università per stranieri di Siena). Daniela began teaching American students in 2008 and since then has taught Italian language for several study abroad programs in Florence, including Syracuse University, Richmond College, Florence University of the Arts, Cabrillo College, Benetictine College and CAPA. Currently, she is a professor of Italian language at CEA and NYU Florence.

Important Italian Class Rules
- Please remember that you are in Florence to learn the Italian language and culture, so Italian will be spoken in class at all times.
- Coming prepared to class having done the assignments, making an effort to constantly speak Italian, asking questions, participating in all activities with a positive attitude, are all criteria in assessing your own class participation. For our detailed policy, please check the enclosed Grading Class Participation.
- Relying on used textbooks with marked answers is considered a matter of academic honesty and will be regarded by your instructor as cheating, negatively affecting your grade.
- All Quizzes and Exams will be taken as scheduled. Examinations may be anticipated or made up only with the permission of the Office of Academic Support, Villa Ulivi.
- Personal travel arrangements will never constitute a satisfactory excuse for requesting an early or make-up exam.
