Class Description:
This cross-disciplinary course explores issues of "race", identity and citizenship in colonial and postcolonial Italy drawing from Sociology, History, Critical Race Theory, Gender Studies and Media and Cultural Studies. There are two sections to this course. The first part focuses on the colonial period and it will provide students with conceptualisations of “race” in Italy, going from the Liberal Period to the end of the Fascist regime (1861-1941) passing through the colonial mission in East Africa and the proclamation of the Empire of Africa Orientale Italiana in 1936. The second part of the course analyses the “postcolonial” phase, going from the end of WWII to 2017. This section will explore, amongst other things, post-war issues of métissage, the immigration phase in the 90s, which marked a historical turning point in the country, and the persistence of what can be defined as a specific “colour line divide” ruling in Italy today. The analysis of blackness in Italy highlights internal tensions at the core of national identity, clearly based on racializing practices. Through the use of sociological research and cultural analysis, this course will offer an extensive overview on the construction and representation of “race” in Italy and its effects on the everyday life of racialized subjects.

Desired Outcomes:
On completion of this course students should:

- Have mastered a basic understanding of issues of “race”, identity and citizenship in Italy
- Have developed an understanding of key issues pertinent to the intersectional analysis of “race”, identity, gender, citizenship and Nation
- Have improved their ability to think critically and use a range of theories from Sociology, Gender studies, Critical Race Theory and Media and Cultural Studies introduced during the course
• Have further developed their oral skills through class participation
• Have gained experience in working effectively in groups and individually on set tasks

Assessment Components
• Attendance and Participation: 15%
• Weekly reflective notes (1/ 1.5 pages): 30%
• Midterm Exam: 20%
• Research Project: 15%
• Final Exam: 20%

Failure to submit or fulfill any required course component results in failure of the class.

Assessment Expectations:

• Grade A: The student makes excellent use of empirical and theoretical material and offers structured arguments in his/her work. The student writes comprehensive essays/exam questions and his/her work shows strong evidence of critical thought and extensive reading.
• Grade B: The candidate shows a good understanding of the problem and has demonstrated the ability to formulate and execute a coherent research strategy
• Grade C: The work is acceptable and shows a basic grasp of the research problem. However, the work fails to organize findings coherently and is in need of improvement
• Grade D: The work passes because some relevant points are made. However, there may be a problem of poor definition, lack of critical awareness, poor research
• Grade F: The work shows that the research problem is not understood; there is little or no critical awareness and the research is clearly negligible

Grading Guidelines
A = 94-100
A minus = 90-93
B plus = 87-89
B = 84-86
B minus = 80-83
C plus = 77-79
C = 74-76

D plus = 67-69
D = 65-66
F = below 65

Grading Policy:
Please refer to Assessment Expectations and the policy on late submission of work.

Academic Accommodations:
Academic accommodations are available for students with documented disabilities. Please contact the Moses Center for Students with Disabilities at 212-998-4980 or see the Moses Center for further information.

Students with disabilities who believe that they may need accommodations in a class are encouraged to contact the Moses Center for Students with Disabilities at (212) 998-4980 as soon as possible to better ensure that such accommodations are implemented in a timely fashion. For more information, see Study Away and Disability.

Attendance Policy:
Study abroad at Global Academic Centers is an academically intensive and immersive experience, in which students from a wide range of backgrounds exchange ideas in discussion-based seminars. Learning in such an environment depends on the active participation of all students. And since classes typically meet once or twice a week, even a single absence can cause a student to miss a significant portion of a course. To ensure the integrity of this academic experience, class attendance at the centers is mandatory, and unexcused absences will be penalized with a two percent deduction from the student’s final course grade. Students are responsible for making up any work missed due to absence. Repeated absences in a course may result in failure.

For courses that meet once a week, one unexcused absence will be penalized by a two percent deduction from the student’s final course grade. For courses that meet two or more times a week, the same penalty will apply to the number of class times over a single week.

Excused Absences:
In case of absence, regardless of the reason, the student is responsible for completing missed assignments, getting notes and making up missed work in a timely manner based upon a schedule that is mutually agreed upon between the faculty member and the student. The only excused absences are those approved by the Office of Academic Support; they are as follows:

Absence Due to Illness
- If you are sick, please see a doctor. Contact the Office of Student Life for assistance.
- For absences that last for two or more consecutive days, a doctor’s certificate, “certificato medico” is required. The doctor will indicate in writing the number of days of bed rest required. Please note these certificates can only be obtained on the day you see the doctor and cannot be written for you afterwards.
- Absences can ONLY be excused if they are reported WITHIN 48 HRS of your return to class via the online NYU Florence Absence Form.
- OAS will not accept a student email or telephone call regarding an absence due to illness.
- OAS will only notify faculty of absences REPORTED on the ABSENCE FORM.
The Office of Student Life, when assisting you in cases of severe or extended illness, will coordinate with the Office of Academic Support to properly record your absences.

Due to Religious Observance
- Students observing a religious holiday during regularly scheduled class time are entitled to miss class without any penalty to their grade. This is for the holiday only and does not include the days of travel that may come before and/or after the holiday.
- Information regarding absences due to religious observance must be provided at least SEVEN DAYS PRIOR to the date(s) in question using the online NYU Florence Absence Form.
- Please note that no excused absences for reasons other than illness can be applied retroactively.

Due to a class conflict with a program sponsored lecture, event, or activity
- All students are entitled to miss one class period without any penalty to their grade in order to attend a lecture, event or activity that is sponsored by La Pietra Dialogues, Acton Miscellany or the Graduate Lecture series.
- Information regarding absences due to a class conflict must be provided at least SEVEN DAYS PRIOR to the date(s) in question using the online NYU Florence Absence Form.
- Please note that no excused absences for reasons other than illness can be applied retroactively.

Students with questions or needing clarification about this policy are instructed to contact a member of the Office of Academic Support located in Villa Ulivi or to email florence.academicsupport@nyu.edu

Late Submission of Work
- All course work must be submitted on time, in class on the date specified on the syllabus.
- To request an extension on a deadline for an assignment, students must speak to the professor one week prior to the due date.
- To receive an incomplete for a course at the end of the semester, two weeks before final exams, both the student and the faculty member must meet with the Assistant Director of Academic Affairs to review the request and if granted, they must both sign an Incomplete Contract detailing the terms for completing missing coursework.

Plagiarism Policy
PLAGIARISM WILL NOT BE TOLERATED IN ANY FORM:
The presentation of another person’s words, ideas, judgment, images or data as though they were your own, whether intentionally or unintentionally, constitutes an act of plagiarism.

In the event of suspected or confirmed cases of plagiarism, the faculty member will consult first with the Assistant Director for Academic Affairs as definitions and procedures vary from school to school.
Writing Center:

The Writing Center, located in Villa Ulivi, offers you feedback on any type of writing, at any stage in planning or drafting; very rough drafts are welcome. Sign up for a consultation at the Writing Center's website and submit your working draft or ideas at least six hours in advance to NYU Florence Writing Center. You can drop in for a consultation M-Th, but remember that appointments are given priority. Please also note that the Writing Center does not correct or “fix” your writing but prompts you to think and work. The aim is to create stronger writers in the long term, not necessarily perfect papers in the short term.

Your Instructor

Dr Angelica Pesarini was awarded a PhD in Sociology and Gender Studies at the University of Leeds (UK) and she received a Master’s Degree in Gender, Development and Globalisation at the London School of Economics. She previously worked as a Lecturer in Race, Gender and Sexuality at Lancaster University, UK. Angelica conducted research on gender, identity and the development of economic activities within some Roma communities in Italy and she has analysed strategies of survival, risks and opportunities associated with male prostitution in Rome. Her current work investigates visual racializing practices located at the intersection of “race”, gender and identity in colonial and postcolonial times, with a specific focus on Italy.
