Semester: Spring 2019
Full Title of Course: Renaissance Art
Alpha-Numeric Class Code: ARTH-UA9005
Meeting Days and Times: Thursdays, h 9:00-12:00 AM
Classroom Location: Villa Ulivi, Aula San Gimignano

Class Description:

NYU Students who have already taken ARTH-UA 2 will not receive major credit for ARTH-UA 5 [Renaissance Art survey] or ARTH-UA 6 [Modern Art survey].

This course is an introduction to Renaissance Art by exploring in depth the historical, political and cultural evolution of Italy and Europe between the 14th and the 15th centuries. This overview will be not confined to works of art but will include social and patronage issues - i.e. the role of the guilds, the differences in private, civic and church patronage - that affected the style, form and content of the Italian rich artistic output, which reached a peak often nostalgically referred to by later generations as the “golden age”. Themes such as patronage, humanism, interpretations of antiquity, and Italian civic ideals form a framework for understanding the works of art beyond style, iconography, technique, and preservation. The course analyzes the historical and social background of the beginning of the Renaissance during the 14th century and the impact of patronage on art. It then focuses on the early 15th-century art in Italy and Europe and deals with the Medici Family’s age. Lastly, it analyzes the ‘golden Age’ of the Renaissance, specifically focusing on Verrocchio, Botticelli, Perugino, and Ghirlandaio. By the end of this course, students gain a thorough knowledge of the Italian and European Renaissance Age, developing practical perception and a confident grasp of the material, understanding the relationship between both historical and artistic events and valuing the importance of patronage. As the Renaissance works are often still in their original physical settings, during field-studies to museums and churches in Florence students will have a unique opportunity to experience the works as their original viewers did and as their creators intended.

Desired Outcomes:
On completion of this course, students should:

- Have improved their ability to think critically, engage in complex reasoning and express their thoughts clearly through their written work
- Have improved their understanding of the methodologies of art history
- Have mastered a basic understanding of how to research questions in art history
- Recognize works by the principal protagonists of the Renaissance age in Italy and understand why they are significant for the history of art

Assessment Components

- Attendance and Participation: 5%
- Oral Presentation of a Reading Assignment: 10%
- Oral and Written Visual and Comparative Analysis: 20%
- Written Midterm Exam: 20%
- Written Research Analysis: 20%
- Written Final Exam: 25%
- Failure to submit or fulfil any required course component results in failure of the class.

Attendance and Participation: 5% total
Attendance is mandatory and is taken at the beginning of every class. Students are expected to participate actively and critically in class discussions, and the participation portion of the class will be graded accordingly.

Oral Presentation of a Reading Assignments: 10% total
Length of time of the oral presentation: approximately 10 minutes length. On the due date, each student will orally present and discuss his/her assigned reading. Over the course of the semester, students will be assigned ONE significant reading assignment by the instructor. The purpose of this assignment is to improve students' level of reading awareness, consider the following steps: 1. identify main headings and subject areas covered, 2. highlight important facts, concepts, vocabulary, 3. write out the natural outline of the reading and fill in keywords, ideas, and definitions, 4. Compare lectures notes with notes from your reading.

Oral and Written Visual and Comparative Analysis: 20% total
Over the course of the semester, students will be assigned one significant art object as a specific analysis topic by the instructor. This Analysis consists of a series of critical descriptions, notes, observations on the assigned art object: during one on-site visit, students will summarize the overall appearance, the ‘formal’ qualities and the details of the object, following the Notebook structure given by the instructor. Students are also asked to compare and/or contrast their assigned work of art with another one previously presented by the instructor.

Oral Analysis: 10% total: approximately 10 minutes in length. On the due date, each student will orally present his/her assigned art object.

Written Analysis: 10% total: The written analysis should be as follows: approximately 6-7 pages. Font: Times New Roman, 12-point font size; margins: 1” on left, right, top, and bottom; spacing: double-space everything, paragraph alignment: Justified. Approx. 1800-2000 words. The written version of the oral presentation must be printed and submitted via NYU Classes in Word.doc format on the due date. Any exception will result in a lowering of your grade. Please remember that if you are absent on the due date, the assignment must reach me nonetheless. N.B. Extensions will not be granted, so please do not ask.

Written Midterm Exam: 20% total
It is comprised of three sections, approximately 4-5 handwritten pages:
1. 2 Slides identification, 10% total: you will be shown two images to describe, compare and contrast; the images will be chosen from among those shown either during lecture or seen on site: all images seen in the exams will have appeared in at least one of these places. You will write a brief description of the work in complete sentences, identifying the work’s importance to the history of art as identified in class and/or in your reading.
2. 1 Slide attribution, 5% total: you will suggest the probable artist and state your reasons for making this attribution
3. short-answer questions with open answer on a topic covered in class, 5% total

Written Research Paper: 20%
The written paper should be as follows: approximately 6-7 pages + “Bibliography”. Font: Times New Roman, 12-point font size; margins: 1” on left, right, top, and bottom; spacing: double-space everything, paragraph alignment: justified. Approx. 1800-2000 words. It must be printed and submitted via NYU Classes in Word.doc format on the due date. It consists of a well-organized essay on the assigned topic, including references to all sources used. It follows the Notebook structure, but any point must be correlated to bibliographic sources. Any arguments, ideas, and insights of others, as well as direct quotations, citations and paraphrases of another scholar’s words or ideas from articles, books, or any other source require a citation in either a footnote or endnote. Failure to properly cite or quote your sources constitutes plagiarism, which will result automatically in the grade of “F”, as you see below. Sources for the paper may be found among those listed on this syllabus or any other relevant source available in the Ulivi Library, the British Institute Library, Ebsco, JSTOR or other databases of scholarly articles. See “articles via databases” on the NYU Libraries site. Any exception will result in a lowering of your grade. Please remember that if you are absent on the due date, the assignment must reach me nonetheless. N.B. Extensions for the paper will not be granted, so please do not ask.

N.B. This assignment must end with the “Bibliography”: all sources cited in notes must be listed in a separate attached page to the end of the paper.

To prepare an Outline, see: “Making an Outline”

To prepare the Research Paper, see: “Cambridge University Press ELT: Prof. Simon Peyton Jones, How to Write a Great Research Paper”
Written Final Exam: 25% total
It is comprised of four sections, approximately 5-6 handwritten pages:
1. 2 Slides identification 10% total: you will be shown two images to describe, compare and contrast; the images will be chosen from among those shown either during lecture or seen on site: all images seen in the exams will have appeared in at least one of these places
2. 1 Slide attribution 5% total: you will suggest the probable artist and state your reasons for making this attribution
3. short-answer questions with open answer on a topic covered in class, 5% total
4. 1 essay question on a reading based on material considered in class, 5% total

The final exam is comprehensive, although greater weight is given to material covered in the second half of the course. It is recommended that you keep a folder on ArtStor of images of the works listed on your weekly handouts in order to facilitate studying for the image identification portion of the exams. For each image shown, everyone is responsible for the object’s: 1. Artist, 2. Title and Location, 3. Date and, if visible, signature or inscriptions, 4. Artistic and Historic Age, 5. Artist’s Lifetime, 6. Technique, 7. Preservation, 8. Patronage, 9. Iconography, 10. Style.
N.B. the exams are carefully timed: if you have a recognized learning disability for which you are entitled to extra time, please speak to someone in the Office of Academic Support immediately to ensure that we can make proper arrangements for testing.

Amici degli Uffizi Cards
Students enrolled in this class receive Uffizi cards. NYU in Florence provides you with an “Uffizi membership card”, which grants you free, unlimited admission to Uffizi Gallery, the most important museum of Florence. It is required for every site visit for this class that you bring this card AND another form of photo identification, and that you arrive to the meeting point at least 5 minutes before the beginning of class. Failure to do so will require that you pay for your own admission to the museum. You will often have to use this card for your Visual Analysis as well. If your card is stolen or lost, please contact the Academic Support Office. N.B. This card is non-transferable and is personalized for each student.

Assessment Expectations:
• Grade A: The student’s work demonstrates an understanding of the subject that goes beyond assigned course readings. The student writes essays/exam questions that are an original synthesis of source materials, demonstrating the ability to evaluate source material critically. Written arguments are clear, well-organized and well-presented; oral presentations are concise, incisive and supplemented by appropriate visual materials. The student has distinguished himself/herself throughout the course of the semester for his/her contributions to class discussion.
• Grade B: The student’s work shows a clear understanding of assigned readings and materials covered in class. The student writes clear, well-organized and well-presented essays/exam questions; oral presentations are concise, incisive and supplemented by appropriate visual materials. The student is prepared in class and asks relevant questions.
• Grade C: The student’s work shows a basic understanding of the subject treated in assigned readings and covered in class. However, written and/or oral work is deficient in one or more of the following areas: clarity, organization or content. The student’s work is generally in need of improvement.

• Grade D: The student’s work shows occasional understanding of the subject treated in assigned readings and covered in class. Written and/or oral work is deficient in one or more of the follow areas: clarity, organization or content. The student does not participate in class discussion and has not frequented the instructor’s office hours.

• Grade F: The student’s work does not demonstrate understanding of the subject treated in assigned readings and covered in class. Written and/or oral work are either insufficient or are not submitted. The student appears unprepared in class and has not frequented the instructor’s office hours.

Grading Guidelines

A = 94-100
A minus = 90-93
B plus = 87-89
B = 84-86
B minus = 80-83
C plus = 77-79
C = 74-76
C minus = 70-73
D plus = 67-69
D = 65-66
F = below 65

Grading Policy:
Please refer to Assessment Expectations and the policy on late submission of work.

Academic Accommodations:
Academic accommodations are available for students with documented disabilities. Please contact the Moses Center for Students with Disabilities at 212-998-4980 or see the Moses Center for further information.

Students with disabilities who believe that they may need accommodations in a class are encouraged to contact the Moses Center for Students with Disabilities at (212) 998-4980 as soon as possible to better ensure that such accommodations are implemented in a timely fashion. For more information, see Study Away and Disability.

Attendance Policy:

Study abroad at Global Academic Centers is an academically intensive and immersive experience, in which students from a wide range of backgrounds exchange ideas in discussion-based seminars. Learning in such an environment depends on the active participation of all students. And since classes typically meet once or twice a week, even a single absence can cause a student to miss a significant portion of a course. To ensure the integrity of this academic experience, class attendance at the centers is mandatory, and unexcused absences will be penalized with a two percent deduction from the student’s final course grade. Students are responsible for making up any work missed due to absence. Repeated absences in a course may result in failure.

For courses that meet once a week, one unexcused absence will be penalized by a two percent deduction from the student’s final course grade. For courses that meet two or more times a week, the same penalty will apply to the number of class times over a single week.

Excused Absences:

In case of absence, regardless of the reason, the student is responsible for completing missed assignments, getting notes and making up missed work in a timely manner based upon a schedule that is mutually agreed upon between the faculty member and the student. The only excused absences are those approved by the Office of Academic Support; they are as follows:

Absence Due to Illness

- If you are sick, please see a doctor. Contact the Office of Student Life for assistance.
- For absences that last for two or more consecutive days, a doctor’s certificate, “certificato medico” is required. The doctor will indicate in writing the number of days of bed rest required. Please note these certificates can only be obtained on the day you see the doctor and cannot be written for you afterwards.
- Absences can ONLY be excused if they are reported WITHIN 48 HRS of your return to class via the online NYU Florence Absence Form
- OAS will not accept a student email or telephone call regarding an absence due to illness
- OAS will only notify faculty of absences REPORTED on the ABSENCE FORM
- The Office of Student Life, when assisting you in cases of severe or extended illness, will coordinate with the Office of Academic Support to properly record your absences.

Due to Religious Observance

- Students observing a religious holiday during regularly scheduled class time are entitled to miss class without any penalty to their grade. This is for the holiday only and does not include the days of travel that may come before and/or after the holiday
- Information regarding absences due to religious observance must be provided at least SEVEN DAYS PRIOR to the date(s) in question using the online NYU Florence Absence Form
• Please note that no excused absences for reasons other than illness can be applied retroactively.

Due to a class conflict with a program sponsored lecture, event, or activity

• All students are entitled to miss one class period without any penalty to their grade in order to attend a lecture, event or activity that is sponsored by La Pietra Dialogues, Acton Miscellany or the Graduate Lecture series.
• Information regarding absences due to a class conflict must be provided at least SEVEN DAYS PRIOR to the date(s) in question using the online NYU Florence Absence Form.
• Please note that no excused absences for reasons other than illness can be applied retroactively.

Students with questions or needing clarification about this policy are instructed to contact a member of the Office of Academic Support located in Villa Ulivi or to email florence.academicsupport@nyu.edu

Late Submission of Work

• All course work must be submitted on time, in class on the date specified on the syllabus.
• To request an extension on a deadline for an assignment, students must speak to the professor one week prior to the due date.
• To receive an incomplete for a course at the end of the semester, two weeks before final exams, both the student and the faculty member must meet with the Assistant Director of Academic Affairs to review the request and if granted, they must both sign an Incomplete Contract detailing the terms for completing missing coursework.

Plagiarism Policy

PLAGIARISM WILL NOT BE TOLERATED IN ANY FORM: The presentation of another person’s words, ideas, judgment, images or data as though they were your own, whether intentionally or unintentionally, constitutes an act of plagiarism.

In the event of suspected or confirmed cases of plagiarism, the faculty member will consult first with the Assistant Director for Academic Affairs as definitions and procedures vary from school to school.

Writing Center:
The Writing Center, located in Villa Ulivi, offers you feedback on any type of writing, at any stage in planning or drafting; very rough drafts are welcome. Sign up for a consultation at the Writing Center’s website and submit your working draft or ideas at least six hours in advance to NYU Florence Writing Center. You can drop in for a consultation M-Th, but remember that appointments are given priority. Please also note that the Writing Center does not correct or “fix” your writing but prompts you to think and work. The aim is to create stronger writers in the long term, not necessarily perfect papers in the short term.
Required Texts:
Required readings are assigned on the syllabus under the week for which they are due. Unless otherwise noted, all required readings are available on NYU Classes site.

It is essential that you keep up with the readings as they serve as the basis for class discussion. Please see details of the readings in the week-by-week breakdown.

Copies of each textbook are available for consultation and short term loans in the Villa Ulivi Library. Extra copies of some textbooks are also available for semester long loans. More information on Books and Course Materials.

Supplemental Texts:

Classroom Etiquette

- Eating is not permitted in the classrooms. Bottled water is permitted.
- Cell phones should be turned off during class time.
- The use of personal laptops and other electronic handheld devices are prohibited in the classroom unless otherwise specified by the professor.
- We recycle! So keep it green! Please dispose of trash in the clearly marked recycle bins located throughout the on campus buildings.

Instructional Format

Because we will be venturing outside for site-visits, students must dress appropriately for weather conditions since class will be held outside no matter what the climate is. Do not bring backpacks or troublesome objects on lessons outside of classroom, but make sure to bring your notebook and pen to take notes. A strict dress code exists in Italian churches and places of worship. Since many of our classes will be conducted in religious environments, students must wear appropriate attire to class. In churches, students are kindly advised not to wear very short shorts, tank tops, sleeveless shirts, mini-skirts or flip-flops. Ladies must have their shoulders and stomachs covered. Both ladies and men must be covered below the knees and all caps must be removed upon entering a Catholic holy site.

Required Co-curricular Activities

See Field-trip description under Session A.

Suggested Co-curricular Activities

Suggested optional co-curricular activities will be announced in class and/or via email by the professor throughout the semester.

Your Instructor

Silvia Giorgi graduated in 1995 with a degree in Medieval Art History from the University of Siena. She received several research fellowships and scholarships in Italy and abroad: Fondazione R. Longhi in Florence, University of Siena, University College London. She attended the Scuola di Specializzazione in Art History and received a Ph.D. in Renaissance Iconography from the University of Siena. She further acquired a Certificate in Museum Curatorship in 2000. She worked on several exhibitions on Medieval and Renaissance Art History: 1999: Mitria di Sant’Isidoro, Bologna; 2000: Duecento, Bologna; 2002: Masaccio e le origini del Rinascimento, San Giovanni Valdarno; 2003: Duccio, Siena; 2004: Petrarca e il suo Tempo, Padova; 2006: Giotto e le arti a Bologna, Bologna. She has written several articles, essays and books about Italian Medieval and Renaissance Art History and gives lectures and conferences on these topics. She is an expert in Medieval Art History as well as Renaissance iconography and Iconology, and has published and presented prolifically on these topics. Her current research focuses on Renaissance Iconography in Central Italy. Silvia Giorgi currently teaches for several US programs and Universities in Florence and Siena.
