NYU Shanghai offers a rigorous academic curriculum with courses taught in English by leading local faculty. Students studying the humanities, business, economics, global China studies, history, math, media, neural science, and many other areas may enroll in advanced courses that fulfill their degree requirements. Students participate in trips in and around Shanghai. Volunteer opportunities and firsthand course-related learning enrich students’ immersive experiences.

WHEN
Fall/spring/academic year/Summer Session/January Term.
Opportunities during Summer Sessions and January Term are often specialized programs with different admissions processes and academic offerings than the fall and spring semesters or full academic year. Visit the Global Programs website to learn more.

ACADEMICS
Courses are crafted to uphold the academic rigor expected from NYU. Students can select courses from a full array of disciplines taught by an exemplary faculty of local scholars, artists, and professionals. Students earn 12 to 18 NYU credits per semester. Subject areas listed on the reverse side are generally offered during the fall and spring semesters.

CULTURAL ENGAGEMENT
• Shanghai neighborhood day tours and faculty-led weekend excursions
• Chinese conversational language support by student mentors
• Course-related experiential learning and community engagement opportunities
• Involvement with campus life, including student clubs, athletics and recreation, career development, and residential life
• Workshops in calligraphy, dim sum making, mah-jongg, paper cutting, and martial arts

CAMPUS

HOUSING
Students live together either in the Green Center Towers residence halls or the Pusan Road residence hall. The towers are located within the Jinqiao district, which is surrounded by commercial shopping and restaurants and is a 15-minute shuttle ride—or six metro stops—away from the academic center. The Pusan residence hall is a 20-minute shuttle ride from the academic center, and it also has convenient local restaurants and shopping malls in the surrounding area.

HOW TO APPLY
Apply at nyu.edu/global-programs. Application deadlines are posted online. The NYU Office of Global Programs reviews completed applications in multiple phases. Students are advised to apply by the earliest deadline.

ADMISSIONS
The admissions process ensures that all students studying with NYU are capable of performing to high academic standards. NYU’s global locations draw an exceptional group of students from leading institutions throughout the United States in addition to NYU students. All students complete an online application, which includes a personal statement. Non-NYU students submit additional materials to support their online application, including an official college transcript and a letter of recommendation.

Non-NYU students should research to confirm when the program they are most interested in will be available.

2019–2020 EXPENSES (PER SEMESTER)
NYU Shanghai tuition and fees are $26,655, with the following exceptions: Tandon School of Engineering, Stern School of Business, and Tisch School of the Arts students pay their regular school charges. Airfare, housing, meals, personal travel, visa application fees, and other related expenses are additional costs.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCIAL AID
Students receive the same financial assistance package at all NYU locations. Those who are offered admission by the Office of Global Programs and who have a FAFSA or CSS Profile on file are automatically reviewed for a variety of scholarships. Global Programs staff are also available to assist students with external scholarship opportunities such as the Freeman-ASIA Award. Please visit the financial aid section of our website at nyu.edu/global-programs/financial-aid for further information.

Non-NYU students are encouraged to contact their home institution regarding portable financial assistance, such as Pell Grants, Stafford Loans, and Direct PLUS Loans. Through a consortium agreement initiated by the student’s home university, this assistance may travel with the student and apply to NYU tuition and fees.

Course offerings and housing accommodations at all global locations are subject to change. See the website for the most up-to-date information.
