NYU in London is currently recruiting for a Resident Assistant – Intersession Programmes – Fixed Term

Job information & salary data
This position involves working in a team of three people looking after a group of between 40 - 50 international students visiting from NYU and NYU-Abu Dhabi. You will be living in and providing support in one of our residences and accompanying students on a range of excursions and visits around London. You will be expected to monitor student well-being, ensure that the housing is conducive to learning and is being properly maintained by students. Part of the role may involve assisting our staff with general duties in housing, as well as some Orientation work with NYU London’s Spring semester students.

This is a fixed term position, 2nd January - 25th January 2020. Application deadline 8 November, 2019.

Salary and benefits
- £1000 salary for the duration of the contract 2nd January – 25th January 2020
- A flat within NYUL’s student housing (which may be shared), including bills
- USS pension scheme (optional)

For full details including job description, duties, and application procedure, please click here.

About NYU in London

NYU in London, an affiliate of New York University, aims to create a study abroad programme of exceptional quality for its students, offering around 500 undergraduate and postgraduate students per semester (including approximately 75 freshmen students) from the USA the opportunity to spend one semester or more living in London whilst studying for NYU accredited courses.

Closing date for applications is Friday 8th November 2019

NYUL plans to hold interviews Tuesday 19th to Wednesday 20th November 2019. Candidates who have not heard from NYUL by that time should assume their application has been unsuccessful.

The successful candidates should have the right to live and work in the UK prior to appointment.

NYU London is an equal opportunity employer committed to equity, diversity and social inclusion.