The Office of Global Services offers programs to assist NYU's global community. Our programs focus on:

- Fostering international student leadership and community,
- Promoting cross-cultural understanding throughout the University,
- Educating the NYU community on the international student experience in navigating US higher education and the employment landscape, and
- Creating connections and friendships that include partnering with student clubs and organizations, and providing opportunities for spouses and partners to be involved at NYU.
We envision Clubs in Partnership with OGS to prioritize and be committed to making NYU a more inclusive environment for all international students at NYU.
