In applying for post-completion Academic Training, I verify my understanding of and compliance with the following:

• Employment must be professional work (appropriate to degree level) and in field of study based on NYU degree
• Living expenses of $2,538 per month must be met through salary and/or personal resources
• Employment that does not meet the Academic Training Requirements is not allowed
• Any change in employers must be requested in advance, the government does not allow any “gaps” in employment (that is, any change in jobs must be done without interruption)
• Any early departure from NYU’s J-1 sponsorship must be reported to the OGS immediately at ogs@nyu.edu
• Any change of address must be reported to the OGS via ogs@nyu.edu within ten days of moving
• Insurance must be maintained at all times by the J-1 student, as well as for any J-2 dependents as required by the regulations, including:
  • medical benefits of at least $100,000 per accident or illness
  • repatriation of remains in the amount of $25,000
  • medical evacuation to the home country in the amount of $50,000
  • a deductible (the amount for which you are responsible before insurance coverage becomes effective) not to exceed $500 per accident or illness
  • co-payment of medical expenses (the portion not covered by insurance that the insured pays him or herself) or no more than 25%
