If you wish to invite family members, other than your spouse or child, to visit the United States on a B-2 visitor visa, you may provide them with the following:

1. Your personal invitation letter, which should include your name, school, relationship to the applicant, name of applicant, applicant’s place and date of birth, dates expected to visit the United States, duration of visit, preferred arrival date, and whether you will provide financial support for the applicant’s visit. A sample of this letter is on the reverse side of this page.

2. An NYU Certificate of Enrollment from the Registrar’s Office.

4. Copies of your proof of financial support, such as bank statements, NYU assistantship letters, and/or personal bank statements if you stated that you would provide financial support for the applicant during his/her stay in the U.S.

Note the following items:
An individual in B-1 or B-2 status cannot enroll in school.

If you wish to bring your spouse or child(ren) to the United States, this would not be the process to undergo. Immediate family members (spouse and/or children) should enter the U.S. in F-2/J-2 status. Please review the OGS website or visit the OGS for the application for a family member to obtain F-2 or J-2 status.
