A Private University in the Public Service

NYU in Bronx
Academic Year 2010-2011
Pre-K through 12 Outreach and Tutoring
Primarily geared toward New York City's under-served students and schools, NYU programs support the educational experience of Pre-K through 12 students across the city. University students and faculty participate in a range of programs including tutoring, student teaching, teacher technical assistance, college preview programs and more.

BRONX IMPACT:
• Over 1,800 hours of tutoring by NYU undergraduate and graduate students in public schools are early childhood centers throughout the borough
• Student teaching assistance to 12 schools
• Mentorship and campus visits for 12 middle and high schools

Student Volunteers
NYU students spend thousands of hours volunteering across the city, in an effort to improve their world and their communities. Outreach efforts are focused at New York City’s smaller non-profit organizations where helping hands contribute the most. These programs encourage effective citizenship, develop student leaders and create a sense of community for the students and the people they work with.

BRONX IMPACT:
• 23,000 service hours with 700 NYU Civic Team volunteers providing ongoing service to 30 nonprofits*

Health and Wellness
From mobile vans that can travel to serve high need areas around the city and state, to direct outreach provided by educational experts, nurses, dentists and doctors in training, NYU's training practitioners and faculty provide extensive assistance to some of New York’s neediest communities of all ages.

BRONX IMPACT:
• 8 public schools and Headstart classroom units performed by the NYU Mobile Dental Care Program
• Oral Health Dental screenings to co-op city NOBRE (Naturally Occurring Retirement Community)

Non-Profit, School and Small Business Assistance
By providing real-world opportunities and pre-professional experiences for students, NYU’s coordinated efforts also offer much needed support to local non-profits, schools and small businesses. Projects and services range from direct counseling support, art, drama, and music education, to operational assessments and studies, to management and governing assistance.

BRONX IMPACT:
• 4 year-long student team consultant capstone projects serving non-profits
• Social work field placements at 100 social service agencies
• Assistance to 20 organizations through art, music and occupational therapy student placements
• $28,000 donated through the United Way of NYU by full-time employees*
• $138,000 of NYU sponsorships and direct support to local nonprofit organizations*
