A Private University in the Public Service

NYU in QUEENS
Council District 20

Pre-K through 12 Outreach and Tutoring
Primarily geared toward New York City's under-served students and schools, NYU programs support the educational experience of Pre-K through 12 students across the city. University students and faculty participate in a range of programs including tutoring, student teaching, teacher technical assistance, college preview programs and more.

QUEENS IMPACT:
- Student teaching assistance to 8 schools
- 417 hours of campus tours conducted for students from 7 public middle and high schools
- 7,140 hours worth of NYU classes taken by NYC public high school students*

Health and Wellness
From mobile vans that can travel to serve high need areas around the city and state, to direct outreach provided by educational experts, nurses, dentists and doctors in training, NYU's training practitioners and faculty provide extensive assistance to some of New York's neediest communities of all ages.

QUEENS IMPACT:
- 11 public schools and Headstart classroom visits performed by the NYU Mobile Dental Care Program
- Oral health dental screenings to 3 large senior centers in NORC's (Naturally Occurring Retirement Communities)

Student Volunteers
NYU students spend thousands of hours volunteering across the city, in an effort to improve their world and their communities. Outreach efforts are focused at New York City's smaller non-profit organizations where helping hands contribute the most. These programs encourage effective citizenship, develop student leaders and create a sense of community for the students and the people they work with.

QUEENS IMPACT:
- Assistance to 12 volunteer projects to a variety of human service organizations throughout borough
- 23,000 service hours with 700 NYU Civic Team volunteers providing ongoing service to 30 nonprofits*

Non-Profit, School and Small Business Assistance
By providing real-world opportunities and pre-professional experiences for students, NYU's coordinated efforts also offer much needed support to local non-profits, schools and small businesses. Projects and services range from direct counseling support, art, music and occupational therapy, to operational assessments and studies, to management and governing assistance.

QUEENS IMPACT:
- 3 year-long student team consultant capstone projects serving non-profits
- Social work field placements at 76 social service agencies
- Assistance to 26 organizations through art, music and occupational therapy student placements
- $28,000 donated through the United Way of NYU by full-time employees*
- $138,000 of NYU sponsorships and direct support to local nonprofit organizations*

While each organization is represented by only one category, many receive multiple types of services and support.
