To access the public portal, click “My portal profile” from the Personal Overview page.
The NYU Scholars public portal allows scholars as well as journalists, donors, and policymakers to find NYU faculty members who are working at the forefront.
Your public profile will display an overview of the information you entered.
6. See the “Personal Overview” video for instructions on updating your profile.
The Fingerprint section mines the text of the faculty’s publications and other sources to create an index of weighted terms.
Research Output will display your publication list, including Altmetrics on social media attention.

Similar Experts displays a list of faculty who publish on overlapping concepts.
with customizable viewing options.

You may view your Scopus Profile where you can set-up Scopus citation alerts.
You may view your Scopus Profile where you can set-up Scopus citation alerts.

Use the Experts section to view the public profiles of others, including their publications.
The Research Units section lists the experts and research output.

and collaborate with NYU faculty with similar interests.
and related publications, which are drillable to detail.