FONDLING - BROADWAY AND ASTOR PLACE

On November 27, 2018, the Department of Public Safety received a report of a fondling that occurred at approximately 2:45 p.m. in the area of Broadway and Astor Place.

The victim reported that an unknown male walked in front of her, grabbed her crotch area, and proceeded to hug and kiss her while saying "I love you." The victim was able to escape and the suspect fled south on Broadway towards Cozy Soup and Burger.

The Department of Public Safety reported the incident to NYPD and NYPD is actively investigating the matter.

Description of Suspect: The suspect is described as male, dark complexion, approximately 5’9” tall, with dreadlocked hair, mid-40’s, wearing a brown jacket and a green backpack.