GRADUATE RESIDENT ASSISTANT
For Washington Square Village (WSV) and Stuyvesant Town (StuyTown)

The NYU Graduate Resident Assistant for WSV and StuyTown (herein referred to as RA) is a paraprofessional who lives in an apartment in a graduate residence hall/apartment building and serves as a role model, peer counselor, resource and referral person, advocate, policy enforcer, programmer, and leader for their assigned residents as well as all graduate residents in the community. The RA also assists with daily emergency coverage rotation, works a set number of hours at the resource center, and plans and implements social/educational programs. The primary goal of the RA is the development of an environment conducive to the academic and personal growth of residential graduate students. The RA reports to the Residence Hall Director (RHD).

QUALIFICATIONS
The following qualifications must be met in order to serve in the role

• Commitment to community: RAs must role model and demonstrate strength of character, good judgment, flexibility, responsibility, involvement and commitment to student life and the University.

• Course Load: A minimum of 9 credits is required (unless in the final semester before graduation).

• Grade Point Average: RAs must hold a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 at New York University and be a full-time graduate student throughout the time of application and appointment.

• Selection Process: RAs must successfully complete the application and selection process.

• University Standing: RAs must be in good standing at New York University prior to and throughout the role period.

TERMS
The following terms must be accepted in order to serve in the role

• Availability: All RAs are expected to be sufficiently available to respond to emergency situations that may arise and to maintain regular contact with residents (via email, social media, and in person). A paraprofessional who is not on duty and who plans to leave the city for more than a 24 hour period (e.g. weekend) must notify and/or obtain prior permission from hall supervisor.

• Compensation: In addition to an invaluable experience in peer leadership and teamwork, RAs are compensated with a housing/dining grant which is utilized to cover the cost of room and board. Note that the paraprofessional meal plan can only be used when dining halls are open and the University is in session. This compensation may impact any Financial Aid award received. For further information, please contact a counselor with the Office of Financial Aid at 212.998.4444.

• Role Period: The standard role period for paraprofessionals is one full academic year, from August (16 days prior to NYU Residence Hall Opening Day) to May (Commencement Day). Paraprofessionals are expected to report for training sessions prior to residence hall check-ins for both fall and spring semesters (week-long training in August; three-day training in January). The role period is contingent upon the successful completion of tasks, assignments and responsibilities, and positive performance appraisals by hall supervisor. Upon successful completion of the role period, the RA may be considered to serve for an additional period. Limited summer opportunities may be available.

• Holidays, Emergency Closures, Breaks and Vacation Periods: RAs may be required to work and/or serve on duty for a portion or all of holidays, emergency closures, breaks and vacation periods when University offices are closed; these include, but are not limited to Thanksgiving Break, Winter Break and Spring Break.

• Meetings: RAs can expect to attend hall team meetings each Wednesday evening from 9:30pm-11:30pm. As well, regularly scheduled one-on-one meetings with supervisors will be scheduled. These meetings are part of the 20 hour weekly commitment.
• Outside/Additional Work: Participation in leadership roles and work experiences are an important part of one’s educational experience. However, since this opportunity must be the primary of those selected, it is paramount that participation in aforementioned activities not be excessive in time required outside the hall and must not come in conflict with the role. Permission must be granted by hall supervisors if employment outside of this opportunity is desired. Those who have been awarded work study money through the Office of Financial Aid will not be barred from taking advantage of this type of aid. Should this apply to you please discuss your plans with hall supervisors before beginning such work.

  o First year RAs: First year RAs are discouraged from holding jobs, internships, assistantships or any other roles which are not academically required for completion of an academic degree. If a first year RA wishes to hold outside employment, approval must be received from hall supervisor prior to the start of each semester. If outside work has been approved and begins to interfere with the RA role, the team member will need to choose between the RA role and the outside role.

  o Returning RAs: Returning RAs may hold limited outside commitments that are not academically required if approved by hall supervisor. Returning RAs cannot allow this commitment to conflict with the RA role and must receive satisfactory ongoing and semester feedback and performance appraisals. If a returning RA wishes to hold outside employment, approval must be received from hall supervisor prior to the start of each semester. If outside work has been approved and begins to interfere with the RA role, the team member will need to choose between the RA role and the outside role.

• Time Commitment: RAs should expect about 20 hours per week on RA duties. These hours will be used in programming, team meetings, one-on-one meetings, interactions with residents, resource center shifts, special projects, and duty. These hours are based on the need of the hall and may include both weekday and weekend hours. Please note that the hall environment does encounter peak times including opening, closing, and transition periods. That said, some weeks more than 20 hours may be needed. When this is the case supervisors will reduce hours in non-peak times to balance out hours.

RESPONSIBILITIES

In addition to the list below, other duties will be assigned as needed by the hall supervisors. RAs are encouraged to review the Residential Life Paraprofessional Handbook for specific protocols and responsibilities.

Administrative:

- Participate in weekly team meetings on Wednesday nights at 9:30pm – 11:30pm;
- Serve approximately 3 hours a week on special projects and/or collateral assignments;
- Serve one 3-hour office/resource center shift per week;

- Assist with the completion of roommate agreements (as needed);
- Assist the Housekeeping and Facilities team in identifying facilities in need of repair or attention;
- Participate in other University, Departmental and building activities as assigned;
- Assist in the preparation of hall for opening and transitions.

Community Development:

- Partner with residents to create a living and learning environment that promotes academic growth, personal responsibility, and community accountability through activities such as floor meetings, programs, and intentional one-on-one conversations (e.g. BASE);
- Provide opportunities for meaningful interaction for residents;
- Implement social, educational, and academic programs;
• Assist residential students in academic, social and personal matters through resource referral;
• Provide guidance and support and role model appropriate behaviors as a responsible community member;
• Support and promote the mission of hall council and the Inter-Residence Hall Council (IRHC);
• Be available to residents as a resource, providing residents with information regarding University activities and events through individual contact and group information sharing;
• Provide support for University mediation procedures in roommate and community conflicts through facilitation of roommate/community meetings and referring students to other mediation services;
• Support the assessment of program effectiveness and learning outcomes by submitting program reports and other data (e.g. ThinkTank, Skyfactor).

Crisis Response & Policy Enforcement:
• Know, communicate, enforce, and abide by existing University and Residence Hall policies and procedures;
• Know and be prepared to enact all emergency and crisis procedures;
• Know University/community resources and make appropriate referrals;
• Keep supervisors informed about all problems and concerns on the floor;
• Maintain appropriate confidentiality while working in coordination with University staff;
• Assist with the student conduct process by submitting timely online incident reports to document situations;
• Participate in on-duty and/or on-call rotational coverage during scheduled evenings, weekends, breaks and holidays.

TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT
Training and development programs are important to the effectiveness and success of the Residential Life program and are designed to strengthen the Residential Life team. As such, RAs are required to attend and participate in these activities. Training activities are listed below. Development activities will be held periodically focusing on leadership development and role skill strengthening.
• Spring prior to role start: RA101/Team Meeting/Community Development Assignment/Online Modules
• Fall of role: Fall Training, (a period of time before residence halls open)
• Spring of role: Winter Training, (weekend prior to beginning of Spring semester)

STATEMENT OF ALCOHOL & OTHER DRUG USE
Paraprofessionals in the Office of Residential Life and Housing Services are expected to serve as a role model and uphold department and university policies, as well as local, state and federal laws. There is zero-tolerance for the use of alcohol or other substances in violation of policies or laws or in a manner which puts into question the team member’s ability to exercise sound judgment or serve as an appropriate role model. Team members failing to adhere to these standards will be subject to job action likely resulting in termination from the role. For more specific information on NYU policies please visit the Office of Community Standards website and refer to the Residential Life Paraprofessional Handbook.

STATEMENT OF ETHICAL STANDARDS
Office Residential Life & Housing Services paraprofessionals are required to respect the personal integrity of all residents and assure they be treated in a manner that is fundamentally fair. Paraprofessionals should refrain from engaging in any behaviors, attitudes, relationships, or actions that:
• would impinge on a resident’s or another team member’s dignity, moral code, privacy, self-worth, and academic, physical, psychological, and/or emotional well-being;
• would seek unjustified personal gains, unfair advantage, unearned goods or services;
• would be considered harassment on the basis of gender, race, sex, sexual orientation, religion, creed, nationality and/or mental disability.

New York University is committed to a policy of equal treatment and opportunity in every respect of its relations with its students, faculty and staff members, without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, marital or parental status, national origin, citizenship status, age, disability, or veteran status. This includes, but is not limited to, recruitment, hiring or appointment, selection for training, transfer, layoff, promotion, granting of tenure, rates of pay and other forms of compensation, and participation in University-sponsored educational, social, and recreational programs.
