ABOUT THE PROGRAM

As attention to diversity and inclusion surges at campuses around the country, the need for administrators, chaplains, and faculty to provide leadership intensifies. To address this challenge, the Of Many Institute for Multifaith Leadership at NYU and the Steinhardt School of Culture, Education and Human Development are launching a Professional Diploma on Leading Spiritual Diversity within Higher Education. This four-day program will illuminate today's pressing questions:

How can we best provide spiritual leadership to those who are not members of our religious or spiritual tradition?

How can we best navigate the complexities of religious diversity within the bureaucracy of higher education?

How can we embed religious and spiritual literacy within broader conversations about diversity and inclusion?
