Before Classes Begin

There are a few things every student needs to do before classes begin to make sure they are ready for the spring semester at NYU. Visit our Critical Instructions page for detailed information.

1. Activate your NYU NetID
   You should have done this already in order to register for your course(s), but if you haven’t you should activate your NetID as soon as possible. Your NetID is your e-identification, which gives you access to electronic resources at NYU. It is a combination of your initials and random numbers. If you are a visiting or exchange student, you should have received your NetID and instructions for activation via email when you were admitted to NYU.
   When you activate your NetID, you will have access to NYUHome, the central student information system where you read your email and you can log-in to your Student Center to register for classes, view your course schedule, pay your bill, and request your transcript.
   NYUHome is online at home.nyu.edu.

2. Read your NYU email
   It is NYU policy that communications between the University and students occur over NYU email, which is available through NYUHome. You may have already received emails from NYU offices and services at your NYU address. You will also be expected to email professors, staff, and students using your NYU account. Your NYU email address is your NetID@nyu.edu. You should read your NYU email often to make sure you do not miss important information or notices! If you are having difficulty activating your NYU email, please be sure to complete the following steps:

1. Clear your browser cache and cookies through your web browser’s internet options
2. Go to start.nyu.edu
3. Enter your netID (the ID you were given via email that contains your initials followed by three or four numbers). Then click “Start.”
4. Re-enter your password and click “Continue.”
5. Select the third item, “Set an NYU Google Apps for Education password.”
6. Enter a new password and follow the instructions on the screen to complete activation of your email account.
7. Once your email account has been activated, go to home.nyu.edu and sign into NYU Home.
8. To access your NYU email account, click on “E-mail” under the NYU Home banner on the upper right hand corner.

3. Get your NYUCard
All students must have a NYUCard. The NYUCard is a multi-purpose identification card issued to all students. It grants you access to NYU buildings, residence halls, athletic facilities, and resources and services. You can also use it as an ID card in the city to receive student discounts at museums, shops, and other locations.

You should get your NYUCard before your first class so you can have access to the NYU building where your class will take place. You can get your NYUCard at the NYUCard Center located at 7 Washington Place at Mercer Street. You must bring a photo ID with you to get your NYUCard. Information about submitting your ID photo online is available here: https://photoid.nyu.edu/. Online photo ID submission will begin on December 1.

If you are in the New York City area, we recommend you get your card before classes start, because the Card Center will likely be very busy the first day of class. The Card Center is open Monday-Friday, 8:00 a.m.-8:00 p.m. If you will not be in the NYU area before classes begin, you can get your NYUCard on the first day of class.

Note: Students are asked to turn in their NYUCard to the Card Center at the end of their time at NYU (it will be deactivated when you are no longer a student). If a student returns to NYU in the future without having turned in their NYUCard he/she will be assessed a $15 replacement fee.

4. Check your course schedule and student account balance on NYUHome
It is a good idea to log-in to NYUHome and your Student Center (under Academics tab) and double check your course schedule and account balance before class begins to make sure your registration and payments are set and have not changed. You can also map the location of your class by using the NYU campus map online at http://www.nyu.edu/footer/map.html or by downloading the NYU Mobile app, which features a campus map.

5. Submit your immunization forms
New York State law and NYU policy require all students taking six credits/points or more during the semester to submit proof of immunity to measles, mumps, and rubella and acknowledge receipt of information regarding immunization for meningitis. All students taking at least six credits must submit their forms to the Student Health Center Immunization Office. Students who do not submit forms are at risk of being dropped from all courses without a refund after the spring semester begins. Information about immunization is online at http://www.nyu.edu/shc/about/health.requirements.html.

6. Get your textbooks
You may search for your textbooks online at the NYU Bookstore website: http://bookstores.nyu.edu/. You can search for textbooks by entering your personal information or your course information. If your search does not yield results, do not worry! Some professors do not order their books through the NYU Bookstore, and you can always wait until the first day of class to get your syllabus to see which books and readings you will need. You can purchase your textbooks from the NYU Bookstore, which sells new and used books, or another provider of your choice such as Amazon.com or Barnes & Noble.

Orientation, Check-Ins, and Welcome Week

Spring in New York Online Orientation
Available online: http://www.nyu.edu/admissions/spring-in-ny/admitted-students.html

The online orientation will be on the website for all students to view prior to the start of classes. The orientation will highlight the important information found in this handbook. It is recommended that all Spring in New York students view the orientation and read this handbook before spring semester begins.

Spring in New York Check-In (mandatory)
Monday, January 26, 6 p.m. – 7 p.m. Kimmel Center, Room 914
Tuesday, January 27, 3 p.m. – 4 p.m. Kimmel Center, Room 903
Wednesday, January 28, 11 a.m. – 12 p.m. Kimmel Center, Room 912
Wednesday, January 28, 6 p.m. – 7 p.m. Kimmel Center, Room 910

The check-in sessions are a chance for you to meet Spring in New York staff and other students in the program. Staff will review important information you need to know to have a successful semester at NYU and answer any questions you have about NYU and Spring in New York. All Spring in New York students must attend a check-in session. You may RSVP for a session online at http://www.nyu.edu/admissions/spring-in-ny/admitted-students/prepare-for-classes.html. You must be logged in to NYUHome to access the RSVP form.

Please note:
Spring in New York International Exchange students taking courses at the College of Arts and Science must also attend an orientation with their academic advisors, Anne Blatz and Brendan Rose on Friday, January 23 from 3 pm – 5 pm. Exchange students who cannot attend the orientation should contact Anne Blatz (see below under Advising).
International Student Check-In (mandatory for all International Students)
Friday, January 23, 1:30 p.m. or 3:00 p.m.
Friday, February 6, 1:30 p.m. or 3:00 p.m.

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security requires all new international students with a J-1 or F-1 visa to report their arrival at NYU to the Office of Global Services. OGS will host a check-in to help you meet this requirement. All international students must attend and should bring their I-20, I-94 record, passport, and emergency contact information in the United States and in their home country to their session. Failure to check-in may jeopardize your ability to legally remain in the United States. You can find more information about the mandatory check-in, including the online RSVP form, here: http://www.nyu.edu/global/international-immigration-services/students/inbound-to-nyc/pre-arrival/mandatory-check-in.html

International students with any questions about their student status or experience at NYU prior to or during the semester should contact the Office of Global Services at ogs@nyu.edu or 212-998-4720.

NYU Classes

NYU Classes is the online content management system used for many, but not all, courses at NYU. Classes is used by many professors to post the course syllabus, readings, online discussions, and other course information online. To access Classes, log-in to NYUHome and click the Academics tab. Please remember that not all courses at NYU use Classes. If you do not see one of your courses listed in Classes, it does not mean you are not registered for the course. To see all of the courses you are registered for, you can view your complete schedule on Albert. If you know a course is using Classes and it does not appear in NYUHome, you can contact NYU ITS for assistance at 212-998-3333. GETTING AROUND NYU and NYC

Getting to NYU
NYU is primarily located around Washington Square Park in the Greenwich Village neighborhood in downtown Manhattan. The campus is easily reached using New York City public transportation. Directions on how to get to NYU are on the NYU visitor’s website at http://www.nyu.edu/about/visitor-information/getting-to-nyu.html. There is no NYU transportation service to bring you to campus from the local airports or bus/train terminals. All students are responsible for transportation to/from NYU.

There are many ways to get from the airport to campus, including buses, shuttles, and trains. The easiest way to get to campus is to use a taxi or car service. If you use a taxi, be sure to get one from the official taxi stand at the airport. DO NOT accept a ride from an unauthorized taxi driver.

Also, if you are flying, it is a good idea to register your trip with NYU Traveler at http://www.nyu.edu/life/travel-and-transportation/nyu-traveler.html. NYU Traveler is the University’s web-based travel safety service.

Getting Around NYU

Three bus routes connect the Washington Square campus with other NYU locations in downtown Manhattan and Brooklyn. Buses run Monday-Friday from 7:00 a.m. to midnight and Saturday-Sunday from 10:00 a.m. to midnight. Safe Ride is a shared, on-demand van service available during late night hours. All campus transportation services are free with your NYUCard.
Campus Map
Interactive and downloadable campus maps are online at http://www.nyu.edu/footer/map.html. We also recommend students download the NYU Mobile app which also features a campus map, shuttle tracking, and safe ride features.

Getting Around New York City
Most of Manhattan’s streets form a grid with streets running east and west and avenues running north and south. Street numbers increase as you travel north (10th Street is north of 4th Street), and avenue numbers increase as you travel west (5th Avenue is west of 2nd Avenue). Broadway is the only street in Manhattan that travels the full length of the island and is not a part of the grid.

Areas of the city that were built prior to the grid’s creation in 1811, like the Financial District and West Village, have narrower and more crooked streets with names rather than numbers.

Public Transportation
New York City Subway Map: http://www.mta.info/nyct/maps/submap.htm

The Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA) operates the city’s network of subways and buses. To use public transportation in the city, students must purchase a MetroCard. There is an initial $1 cost for a new MetroCard, so make sure to refill your card instead of buying a new one! One ride on a bus or subway is $2.50, but you can receive discounts when you buy a MetroCard with multiple or unlimited rides. MetroCards may be purchased from vending machines or tellers in any subway station. The standard MetroCard costs $5.00 and allows two rides on the subway. Transfers from one subway line to another or from the subway to the bus are free.

For more information about MetroCards, please visit the MTA website at http://www.mta.info/metrocard/.

Commuter Transportation
Commuter students travelling to NYU’s campus can use the MTA, New Jersey Transit, Long Island Railroad, MetroNorth, PATH, and other transportation services. Only New Jersey Transit offers a student discount on fares.

Further commuter student information is available from Commuter and Off-Campus Student Services at http://www.nyu.edu/students/undergraduates/student-communities/commutersoff-campus.html.
