

LAW, SATIRE, INCAPACITY

Sponsored by: The Jacob Burns Institute for Advanced Legal Studies,
N.Y.U. Program in Poetics of Theory, and E. U. Viadrina Program on Representation

Sunday, February 13th, 2005 10 am – 1:30 pm
Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, 55 Fifth Ave

Introduction:

Anselm Haverkamp, New York University

Chair

Michèle Lowrie, New York University

BRIEF REMARKS ON AUGUSTAN SATIRE

Simon Critchley, The New School for Social Research

SATURA RESARTUS: LIVING IN THE WOODS WITH BEARS

Response

Pamela Brown, New York University

WHAT'S ROUSSEAU GOT TO DO WITH IT?

Paul Raffield, The University of Warwick

THE FAILINGS OF COMMON LAWYERS: WIGLOMERATION AS INCIVILITY

Response

Björn Quiring, University of Frankfurt

LEGAL LEVITATIONS

Joe Brooker, The University of London

SATIRE BUST: THE WAGERS OF MONEY

Response

Catherine Trüstedt, European University of Viadrina
IT'S ALL HORSE HAIR TO ME

Lunchtime Performance

Paul Boocock, Stand-Up Satire

Closing Remarks

Peter Goodrich, Cardozo School of Law
ON THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST

Brandy Warren, Program Organizer, brandyne_shawnee@yahoo.com