

Poetics and Theory Program, New York University
Representation, Rhetoric, Knowledge, European University Viadrina

May 1-3 2003
New York University

Program
Zone 3: The Enemy

May 1

7.00
Opening Lecture by Avital Ronell (NYU), "Loving your Enemy"
Followed by a Reception at Hemmerdinger Hall

May 2

9.30: Breakfast at Hemmerdinger Hall

10.00 - 12.00
David Bates (Berkeley), "Defending the Legal State: Crisis Republicanism between the Wars"
Neil Saccamano, (Cornell), "Parting with Prejudice: Hume, Identity, and Aesthetic Universality"
(Moderator: Till van Rahden (Cologne University/Cologne University))

2.00 - 4.00
Peter Galison (Harvard), "Manichaen Sciences"
Eva Horn (Viadrina/NYU), "Knowing the Enemy. Secret Intelligence and the Transformations of Enmity"
(Moderator: Angela Zito (NYU))

5.00 - 7.00
Manfred Schneider (University of Bochum), "The Serious Case: Enemy on the Edge of Final Words"
Christian Geulen (University of Cologne), "Friendly Fire"
(Moderator: Eduardo Cadava (Princeton))

8.00
Dinner for all participants at Borgo Antico, 22 E 13th St. (South side of the street, between 5th Ave. and University Place)

May 3

9.30: Breakfast at Hemmerdinger Hall

10.00 - 12.00
Michele Lowrie (NYU), "Between Citizen and Enemy"
Russell Berman (Stanford), "Democratic War, Represses Peace: on Anti-Americanism"
(Moderator: Paul Fleming (NYU))

2.00 - 5.00

Friedrich Balke (Cologne), "Restating Sovereignty"

David Konstan (Brown), "Enmity and Hatred in Ancient Greece"

Anselm Haverkamp (Viadrina/NYU), TBA

(Moderators: Anson Rabinbach (Princeton); Nicholas Lemann (The New Yorker))

Closing Discussion