

The Albert Gallatin Lectures bring a series of NOTABLE FIGURES from the worlds of POLITICS, the ARTS, BUSINESS, and ACADEMIA to NEW YORK UNIVERSITY to discuss CONTEMPORARY ISSUES with students, faculty, and members of the wider community. Presented by the GALLATIN SCHOOL OF INDIVIDUALIZED STUDY, the Albert Gallatin Lectures reflect the School's academic philosophy, which is firmly rooted in the idea that KNOWLEDGE and UNDERSTANDING grow through CONVERSATION and COLLABORATION.

and OUR BACKYARD

Kenneth Roth, Executive Director of Human Rights Watch since 1993, has conducted human rights investigations around the globe and has written more than 80 articles and chapters on a range of human rights topics. Mr. Roth has devoted special attention to issues of justice and accountability for gross abuses of human rights, standards governing military conduct in time of war, the human rights policies of the United States and United Nations, and the human rights responsibilities of multinational businesses. Under his leadership, Human Rights Watch has quadrupled in size and greatly expanded its geographic reach; investigating, reporting on, and seeking to curb human rights abuses in over 70 countries.
