

INTELLECTUAL AUTOBIOGRAPHY AND PLAN FOR CONCENTRATION

The "Intellectual Autobiography and Plan for Concentration" is a brief, reflective essay of two to three pages (typed and double-spaced), in which students write about their intellectual development and their plans for designing the concentration. In constructing the essay, students should describe their educational experiences, the central idea(s) of the concentration and the coursework relevant to their concentration. This requirement applies to students who enter Gallatin during or after the Fall 2003 term. For more information about the essay and this requirement, please see the "Policies and Procedures for the Undergraduate Intellectual Autobiography and Plan for Concentration" booklet.

APPROVAL PROCESS

The "Intellectual Autobiography and Plan for Concentration" essay must be approved by the student's faculty adviser (who signs on the bottom of this form). Students must submit this form and a copy of the essay to Gallatin's Office of Student Services, 715 Broadway, 8th Floor, by the deadline below.

DEADLINE

For students who entered Gallatin Summer 2008 or after, the essay must be approved by the adviser and submitted no later than the last day of classes of the semester in which the student completes 64 credits. For students who entered Gallatin Fall 2003 through Spring 2008, the essay must be approved by the adviser and submitted no later than the last day of classes of the semester in which the student completes 80 credits; however all students are encouraged to complete this requirement by the end of the sophomore year (64 credits).
