University of Southampton (England), Overseas Visiting Student, Archaeology Dept., 1977-79

Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Center for Materials Research in Archaeology and Ethnology, Summer Institute in Biological Materials from Archaeological Sites: Fauna, 1983.

EMPLOYMENT

1993-present	Associate Professor of Anthropology, New York University
1990-1993	Assistant Professor of Anthropology, New York University
1985-1990	Assistant Professor of Anthropology, Princeton University
1989-1990	Charles G. Osgood Preceptor, Princeton University
1984-1985	Visiting Lecturer in Anthropology, Princeton University.
1981-1989	Occasional Visiting Lecturer in Anthropology, Univ. of Pennsylvania.
1982-1984	Research Specialist in Faunal Analysis and Paleoethnobotany, MASCA, University Museum, University of Pennsylvania.
1979-1982	Research Assistant, MASCA, University Museum, University of Pennsylvania

COURSES TAUGHT

New York University: Faunal Analysis; Introduction to Human Evolution and Prehistory; Prehistoric Europe: From the End of the Ice Age to the Coming of the Romans; European Prehistory II; Archaeological Methods and Techniques; Human Ecology; Environmental Archaeology; Medieval Archaeology; Contemporary Archaeological Theory; Graduate Archaeology Core; Prehistory of Near East and Egypt I; Societies and the Social Sciences: Human Ecology; Fieldwork in Archaeology; History of Archaeological Theory; Archaeology: Early Societies and Cultures; Prehistoric Hunters and Gatherers; Paleoanthropology I (with T. Harrison and E. Delson); Barbarian Europe; Last Hunters—First Farmers; Past and Present in Irish Archaeology

Princeton University: Field and Laboratory Methods in Archaeology; Archaeology of Barbarian Europe; Introduction to Archaeology and Prehistory; Archaeology of Complex Societies; Human Evolution; Prehistoric Background of Western Civilization.

University of Pennsylvania: World Archaeology; Faunal Analysis; Introduction to Archaeology; General Honors Introduction to Archaeology; Environmental Archaeology; Barbarian Europe; Teaching Assistant for Faunal Analysis; Teaching Assistant for Introduction to Cultural Anthropology.

Community College of Philadelphia: Introduction to Physical Anthropology.

DISSERTATION RESEARCH TOPIC

Early Anglo-Saxon Animal Economy: An Analysis of the Animal Bone Remains from the Early Saxon Site of West Stow, Suffolk.

ARCHAEOLOGICAL FIELD AND LAB WORK

July-Aug. 2008	Dún Ailinne, Co Kildare, Ireland; topographic survey at this Irish royal site
August 2008	Completed the analysis of the Fauna from the late Roman site of Icklingham, Suffolk, UK
July 2007	Dún Ailinne, Co Kildare, Ireland; topographic survey at this Irish royal site
2006-2007	Laboratory analysis of the faunal remains recovered from the 1969, 1971, and excavations at Godin Tepe, western Iran.
July 2006	Dún Ailinne, Co Kildare, Ireland; carried out magnetometry and resistivity

survey at this Iron Age royal site

- January 2006 Analyzed the fauna from the 1997-2000 excavations of the 2nd to 4th-century Roman site of Icklingham, Suffolk, UK. The excavations were directed by Dr. Catherine Hills of Cambridge University.
- Summer 2000-03 Faunal Analyst, Valley Forge Excavations. Excavations of officers' and enlisted men's quarters used during the winter of 1777-1778
- Summer 1998-03 Co-Director (with John Wright and Douglas Campana, National Park Service) of excavations at Fort Johns (1998-2000), the headquarters for the New Jersey Defenses during the French and Indian War, and Fort Naminock (2001); in 2003 we mapped the African-American burial ground near Walpack, NJ.
- Summer 1997 Director of Excavations at the Thomas Eakins House, Philadelphia.
- Feb. 1995-
Dec. 1996 Analysis of the Fauna from the Five Points Site, Lower Manhattan.
Dr. R. Yamin, Project Director
- Summer 1991 Faunal Analyst for the Kelheim Project (Prof. P.S. Wells, Director). Kelheim is an Iron Age Oppidum in southern Germany.
- Summer 90/
Dec 90-Jan 91 Analysis of the faunal remains from the Middle Saxon (ca. 650-900 A.D.) site of Brandon, Suffolk at the Faunal Remains Unit, Cambridge University, England
- Summer 1989 Analysis of the faunal remains from the initial excavations at the Late Roman site of Icklingham, Suffolk, England, and of the fauna from the Iron Age oppidum of Kelheim, Germany.
- Summer 1988 Analysis of the faunal remains from the First Excavation Season at Salibiya I, Jordan Valley. Research conducted at the Department of Zoology, Givat Ram Campus, Hebrew University of Jerusalem.
- Summer 1987 Co-Principal Investigator and Co-Director (with Douglas V. Campana and Anna Belfer-Cohen) of the Salibiya I Excavations, Jordan Valley, Israel.
- Winter 1983-84 Faunal Analyst for the Rojdi, Gujarat, India Excavations, Dr. Gregory Possehl, Director.
- 1977-79 Analysis of the Iron Age and Anglo-Saxon Faunal collection from West Stow, Suffolk, England; this research was carried out at the Faunal Remains Unit, Department of Archaeology, University of Southampton, England.

- 1975-76 Participated in a wide range of archaeological environmental impact surveys in the New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania areas.
- Summer 1974 Staff Osteologist for the Welton Wold and North Cave Excavations, East Yorkshire, England. The excavation of these two Iron Age and Romano-British sites was directed by R. Mackey.
- Summer 1974 Worked on faunal collections in the Environmental Archaeology Lab of the York (England) Archaeological Trust, P. V. Addyman, Director.
- Summer 1974 Took part in the excavation of the Magdalenian site of Pincevent, France, Prof. Andre Leroi-Gourhan, Director
- Summer 1973 Participated in the York Archaeological Trust excavations, P. V. Addyman, Director.
- Summer 1972 Took part in the excavations at Dún Ailinne, an Iron Age ceremonial site south of Dublin, Ireland, Prof. B. Wailes, Director
- Spring 1972 Columbia University archaeological field training course at the Wort's Farm Site, Staten Island, Dr. S. Gorenstein, Director
- Summer 1971 Participated in the excavation of the Brook Street Site, Winchester Excavations, England, M. Biddle, Director.

GRANTS AND ACADEMIC HONORS

- 2006 Curriculum Development Challenge Fund Grant in support of a hands-on approach to Faunal Analysis (Anthropology G14.1212)
- 2006 University Research Challenge Fund grant in support of remote sensing at Dún Ailinne, Co. Kildare, Ireland
- 2006 New Jersey Historic Preservation Award for the Hopewell Township Design Guidelines
- 2006 New Jersey Planning Officials' Award for the Hopewell Township Design Guidelines
- 2001 Connections/Conexiones Grant from the King Juan Carlos I of Spain Center.
- 2000 1999 Northeast Region Excellence in Interpretation Award in the category of support to interpretation. Northeast Region, National Park Service, Awarded March 2000

- 1999 Golden Dozen Teaching Award, NYU
- 1997-2003 National Park Service: Five grants in support of Archaeological Research on French and Indian war sites in the Delaware Water Gap. NRA. Funding is provided by the System wide Archaeological Inventory Program (SAIP)/Cultural Resources Preservation Program (CRPP) appropriations, in collaboration with John Wright NPS.
- 1992 Presidential Fellowship, New York University
- 1990-1991 English Heritage (U.K.) Grant in support of the analysis of the faunal remains from the Middle Saxon site of Brandon, Suffolk, England
- 1990 National Endowment for the Humanities Summer Grant in support of an Archaeological Approach to Anglo-Saxon Diet and Subsistence.
- 1990 Princeton University Committee on Research in the Humanities and Social Sciences grant in support of the analysis of the faunal remains from the Middle Saxon site of Brandon, Suffolk, England.
- 1989-90 Charles G. Osgood Preceptorship, Princeton University
- 1988 National Science Foundation Grant in support of Natufian Subsistence Practices--Analysis of the faunal remains from the Late Natufian Site of Salibiya I, Jordan Valley.
- 1988 Princeton University Program in Women's Studies Grant in support of research on Sexual Divisions and Status Differences in Natufian Burials.
- 1988 Care Foundation grant in support of excavations at the Late Natufian site of Salibiya I, Jordan Valley, Israel (second season).
- 1987 Center for Field Research/EARTHWATCH Grant in support of the second season of excavation at the Late Natufian site of Salibiya I, Jordan Valley. Grant received in December 1987; the field season was postponed due to the political situation in the West Bank.
- 1987 National Geographic Committee on Research and Exploration Grant in support of the excavation of the Late Natufian site of Salibiya I, Lower Jordan Valley
- 1987 L.S.B. Leakey Foundation Grant in support of the excavation of the Late

Natufian site of Salibiya I, Lower Jordan Valley

- 1986/1987 Princeton University Committee on Research in the Humanities and Social Sciences Grants in support of: 1. Reconnaissance prior to excavation of the Late Natufian site of Salibiya I, Jordan Valley, Israel, and 2. Separation and analysis of the soil samples from the Late Natufian site of Salibiya I, Jordan Valley, Israel.
- 1987 Ford Foundation Grant through the Women's Studies Program at Princeton University for the study of Women and Gender in the Archaeological Record.
