Assignment 3: 3–5 pages
Due Tuesday, February 18th at 8 P.M. Use Classes to submit this assignment. If you have a problem with Classes, send it by email to your preceptor.
Remember:
• Put your student number but not your name on your assignment. Assignments will be graded anonymously
• You must do one of the first 3 assignments.
• No late papers.
• Use your own words—no quotations or paraphrases

Answer all of the questions. Of course, your responses will have to be very brief. Think of your responses as showing someone who already knows the answers that you know the answers too.

1. What is the "epistemic gap"?
2. What is the "ontological gap"?
3. How does Chalmers propose to argue from one to the other?
4. What is the "phenomenal concepts strategy" and how does it apply to the argument based on the example of "Mary in the black and white room"?
