

The Falak Sufi Memorial Essay Prize

The Hagop Kevorkian Center for Near Eastern Studies invites submissions for the annual Falak Sufi Memorial Essay Prize, established to honor the memory of our student, Falak Sufi.

Students in the Program in Near Eastern Studies may submit essays on any topic related to a field of study offered at the Kevorkian Center. Students may submit one or more chapters of their master's thesis, though the submission should be crafted as a coherent essay in its own right and must be the independent work of the student.

Entries should be no more than thirty pages in length, one-and-a-half-spaced with a 12-point typeface. Please submit your entry by no later than 4pm on February 27, 2009. Late entries will not be accepted. The winner will receive a prize of $350 to be awarded at the end of the Spring 2009 semester.
