Payment Terms

The Advanced Media Studio accepts credit cards, New York University chartfield account numbers, personal checks, and departmental grant checks where applicable. Method of payment must be confirmed on the AMS Job Order Form at the time of job submission. The Advanced Media Studio reserves the right to hold or terminate any service job due to problems with payment. The AMS will not release completed service job orders to any client under any condition until the job order is paid in full. Please make personal checks payable to New York University.

Price quotes are normally issued at the time of job order submission but can be requested by the client in advance of job submission for planning purposes. It is understood that AMS grant checks are issued with a Net 30-day term limit, meaning any check must be used for payment within 30 days of the issue date.

Turnaround Policy

The Advanced Media Studio maintains a week turnaround policy for the processing of all service jobs. For Print Service work, this turnaround begins with approval of the mandatory color proof test. All AMS service jobs are expedited in the order of submission. Larger volume and more complicated projects may require more time, so please consult with the AMS staff prior to job submission in the case of time-sensitive projects.
