

Summit at La Pietra – Winter 2008

Villa La Pietra, an historic Florentine Renaissance villa and the heart of New York University's 57-acre estate, is located on one of the low hills surrounding Florence, minutes away from the city center. During its recent restoration the attic floor was converted into private accommodations. Our guests are received in one of the grandest and most famous house-museums where many global meetings have taken place.

Our guests have the entire top floor of Villa La Pietra at their disposal. It is a living space approximately 700 sq. meters completely furnished with antique-style furniture: 8 beautiful bedroom-suites overlooking Florence and Fiesole (4 doubles and 4 singles), several lovely parlors, a dining room, living room, and an elegant conference room "Le Vedute" that overlooks the Formal Garden of the Villa and Fiesole (AV equipment and set up for up to 30 participants). Moreover, 2 additional double bedrooms are located in our Cottage Suite, thus, our accommodations package features a total of 10 bedroom-suites.

Our bedrooms offer the latest comforts: air-conditioning, direct dial telephone, personal computer with Internet connectivity and printer, HI-FI stereo, VCR and TV. In addition, our Housekeeping & Hospitality Coordinator is available to welcome guests, organize breakfast and coordinate housekeeping. Local telephone calls are free. International calls can be made by calling a long distance carrier and paying with a major credit card.
