NOTICE: WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study scholarship or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

The Fales Library & Special Collections reserves the right to determine whether materials in the collections can be photocopied. No copying will be allowed which will damage or alter an item in any way. Copies provided remain the property of the Fales Library and cannot be published without permission of the copyright holder and the Fales Library. Please contact the Fales Librarian to discuss permissions and use fees for publication.

7. I agree to abide by the statements of policy outlined above and to pay all fees assessed.
