Fall 2014 SEMINAR SCHEDULE

September 18th Daniel Lucks, "Cold War Civil Rights: McCarthyism and the Civil Rights Movement's Fractious Reaction to the Vietnam War"

October 2nd Teishan Latner, Center for the United States and the Cold War Fall Fellow, "Irresistible Revolution: Cuba and the United States Left in the Global Cold War"

October 23rd Dean Kotlowski, Salisbury University, 'Negro and White Unite': The Communist Party of the USA's Critique of Lynching during the 'Third Period.' 1928-1935"

November 6th Forrest Hylton, Northwestern University "Labor Noir: Murders and Funerals on the Brooklyn Waterfront”

November 20th Irene Gendzier, Boston University "Who's Afraid of Oil? Power, Profit and Policy in the Cold War”

December 11th John Harper, John Hopkins University SAIS Bologna Center, Italy, "The Edge of Empire: The Struggle over Rearmament within the Truman Administration, January-June 1950”

Seminars take place from 4:00pm to 6:00pm at the Tamiment Library, Bobst Library 70 Washington Square South, 10th Floor. Reception to follow.