

Join us for NYU in Albany Day!
Limited seats available.

On Tuesday, March 2, 2010, a delegation of New York University students and administrators will make our 25th annual trip to Albany for the 2010 “NYU in Albany Day.” We invite you to be a part of this important event.

“NYU in Albany Day” gives students a unique opportunity to interact with New York’s decision-makers and share your own experiences and the importance of financial aid to you. As a participant, you will be a member of a team that will meet with New York State legislators throughout the day to discuss the State budget and how it will impact students. In response to the projected budget deficits, our advocacy will focus on the proposed cuts to student aid and institutional aid. This year your participation is essential to inform legislators about the issues that are most important to you.

Prior to the trip, you will attend a brief orientation that will provide relevant background materials about the issues and an overview of the day. The Office of Government and Community Affairs will arrange all of the logistics including scheduling appointments, transportation, and meals.

Don’t miss this opportunity to advocate for yourself and your school! Please complete the attached response form and return it via email to government.affairs@nyu.edu or drop it off at 25 West 4th Street, Room 526, no later than February 10, 2010. There are a limited number of seats available for this trip so be sure to sign up early to secure a spot. Additional students will be put on a wait list.

If you have any further questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact the Office of Government and Community Affairs at (212) 998-2400. We hope you will join us on Tuesday, March 2nd.

Sincerely,

Gary Parker, Director
Government and Community Affairs
