

Cycling in the City: A Forum on Rider Rights and Responsibilities

Please join us and enter to win a
FREE BIKE plus other great giveaways!!!!

DATE: Wednesday,
April 16th, 2008

TIME: 6:30PM-8:30PM

LOCATION: Kimball Hall
246 Greene Street,
1st Floor Lounge

RSVP: 212-998-2400

Cycling in the City will bring residents, businesses, organizations, universities, and local elected officials together to promote bicycle rider rights and responsibilities. This event will have a hands-on demonstration by Time's Up! and a presentation by the NYC Department of Transportation.

NYU OGC/A
Office of Government and Community Affairs

Office of Government and Community Affairs
25 West 4th Street, 5th Floor
New York, NY 10012

Co-Sponsored by: State Senator Tom Duane, Manhattan Borough President Scott M. Stringer, Assemblymember Deborah Glick, Councilmember Rosie Mendez, Councilmember Alan Gerson, NYC Dept. of Transportation, Community Board 2 Manhattan Traffic & Transportation Committee, Greenwich Village Block Association, Greenwich Village-Chelsea Chamber of Commerce.