The subtle, witty, wicked inventiveness of Sacha Guitry, France's famous actor-author, finds full expression in "Champs Elysees," the most spectacular picture ever produced in that country.

Guitry enchants his audience with his inimitable sense of humor as he lifts the curtain on the lives of kings, emperors and courtesans.

Romance, intrigue, feminine beauty, lighthearted adventure abound in this picture. The Joy of Life gleams in every scene!

Not the least of its charms is the gorgeous musical score specially written by Adolphe Borchard, one of France's greatest pianists and composers.
