THE STORY

At the turn of the century, a Chinese junk smuggles slave girls into San Francisco, where they are sold at auction. The crew of the junk are caught and brought to trial. The story is set in San Francisco’s Chinatown, where the slave girls are eventually freed and find happiness.

MISS HO IS VITALIZED IN THREE SPORTS: swimming, sailing and Irene Buoyant. She is an excellent shot and never fails to bag the limit when she hunts on a friend’s ranch near Presidio, 200 miles from Hollywood.
Star Former Auto Mechanic
Richard Lee, a former auto mechanic, has been playing the role of Thomas De Quincey's classic, "Confessions of An Opium Eater," now at the Playhouse Theatre. The Albert Zugsmith production deals with the auction of beautiful Oriental girls in early-day San Francisco. Price stars with Linda Ho and Richard Lee.

Koreans Frown Upon Actresses
Actresses are looked down upon in some Korean circles, according to Beulah-born June Kim, beautiful young actress featured in Thomas De Quincey's classic, "Confessions of An Opium Eater," now at the Playhouse Theatre. June Kim says, "I am because, for the past few years, actresses are not able to see the well-educated class."

Stuntmen
One of the largest crowds of stuntmen ever assembled for a motion picture scene is seen in the Thomas De Quincey's classic, "Confessions of An Opium Eater," currently at the Playhouse. Six women and 14 men under the supervision of Albert Zugsmith performed the harrowing stunts for the high-adventure film. Starring in the Allied Artists release for producer-director Albert Zugsmith are Vincent Price, Linda Ho and Richard Lee.

Chinese Star Expert Shot
Linda Ho, beautiful Chinese star recruited by Hollywood from New York stage, is one of filmland's most expert shots. Starring with Vincent Price and Richard Lee in Thomas De Quincey's classic, "Confessions of An Opium Eater," Miss Ho has done running as one of her favorite sports.

Again last night I saw them as they came at me through a veil of smoke... grotesque death-heads... masks like bleached skulls... then bare-fanged beasts with a strange kill-hunger in their eyes. Suddenly it all faded into an exotic kind of nightmare as a huge cage of beautiful women swung before my eyes. Writhing, fantastic creatures screamed to escape... then beckoned me to enter their bamboo-barred world! Did this happen... or is it the mind-madness I have learned to fear with such a strange fascination?... Real... or fancied these are the Confessions of an Opium Eater.

Spearhead Campaign With Television and Radio Aids!

For top coverage in your campaign over the airways, utilize the available radio transcriptions, television trailers and TV slides. The radio spots and trailers are free on request while the cost of the slides is nominal.

RADIO SPOTS

Radio listening, according to recent surveys is at an all-time high. This is due in great measure to the wide popularity of transistor sets in use indoors and out. The recording contains a variety of announcements including one minute, half minute and 10-second spots with the two longer spots having 10-second open ends for local tie-in copy.

TELEVISION TRAILERS

Thrift and excitement galore, abound in the dramatic highlights of the specially prepared television trailers. Filmed in 16 mm., the trailers give the viewers a brief hint of the dramatic action and adventure in store for them. When ordering please let us know the call letters and channel number of the station on which they will be used.

Order radio transcriptions and TV trailers from Allied Artists Exploitation Dept., 165 W. 46th Street, New York 36, N.Y., or 4376 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood 27, Calif.

TELEVISION SLIDE

The specially prepared TV slide is particularly suitable for those 10-second station breaks. The slides are $4.00 each, postage paid, and includes all local tie-in copy imprinting. If you wish the local information on it please be sure to send your playdate and theatre name. The upper right hand corner of the slide is left open for local station ID if you want it. Order slides direct from CHATIS ART DISPLAYS, 4427 SUNSET BLVD., HOLLYWOOD 28, CALIF. Check or money order must accompany your order.
