

PABLO HALKYARD

Leonard N. Stern School of Business
Master of Business Administration, May 2008

McKinsey & Company
Strategy Consultant

Pablo is currently a Strategy Consultant with McKinsey & Company in New York. He is also a judge for the TED Fellows Program and a mentor for New York University's Nonprofit Consulting Corps. Before graduating from NYU Stern with his MBA, he worked on microfinance issues at General Electric Capital and with post-conflict reconstruction and private investment programs at the World Bank and International Finance Corporation. Originally from Chile, Pablo received his B.S. from Georgetown University and has lived in Brazil, India, England and Peru.