Social Entrepreneurship in the 21st Century Speaker Series | 2009 - 2010

The NYU Reynolds Program in Social Entrepreneurship is pleased to announce its 2009-2010 speaker series “Social Entrepreneurship in the 21st Century.” This year’s series features a remarkable selection of social entrepreneurs who have launched extraordinary programs or lead the thinking that addresses the most pressing challenges of the 21st century. Reflecting the NYU Reynolds belief that social entrepreneurship is a meta-profession drawing on cross-disciplinary knowledge and practice, the series presents prominent social entrepreneurs and leaders from across the spectrum of public and professional sectors who will share their insights as cutting-edge, far reaching change makers.

About the NYU Reynolds Program in Social Entrepreneurship

The NYU Reynolds Program in Social Entrepreneurship is designed to encourage a new generation of leaders and participants in public service. This cross-disciplinary program serves not only as a model to other universities but as a realization of NYU’s commitment to being “a private university in the public service.” Reaching across 11 graduate and undergraduate schools at NYU, the program attracts, inspires and supports students to realize and implement sustainable and scalable solutions to society’s most intractable problems. The speaker series is one of many events and programs NYU Reynolds offers to the NYU community, broadening the social discourse and enriching university life.

Join us for this remarkable series. Though open to the entire NYU community, space is limited and an RSVP is required. For more information, locations and to RSVP to the next event, please visit
