This chart is only a sample of services provided at NYU Student Health Center for NYU Poly students. Students may be billed by SHC Patient Accounts for deductibles, co-insurance and/or fees, not covered by insurance. Students referred outside SHC for treatment and/or services will be billed separately by those outside providers.

¹ Professional office visits are subject to co-pays and co-insurance based on your health insurance coverage.

² Laboratory tests other than those listed under the "No Cost" column will be billed by the outside lab. Routine screenings (e.g. sexually transmitted infection, cholesterol/lipid) that are not medically-indicated may not be covered by your health insurance.

³ May not be covered by insurance plans. Check with your insurance carrier.
