NYU SHC Online Services

We understand that your health is a vital part of your academic experience. For your convenience we have created this secure, interactive web portal for online appointment scheduling system and patient communication. This is the first phase of our web portal.

In the near future, we will introduce more functions to help you manage your health needs while studying at NYU.

Introducing Online Appointment Scheduling

To schedule an appointment, click on Appointments on the left

Feeling ill? Call 212-443-1120 for a telephone nursing assessment. A trained clinician will provide consultation and arrange for appropriate follow-up care if necessary.

In case of a life- or- limb threatening emergency, call 911 for help.
