The NYU Reynolds Program in Social Entrepreneurship is pleased to announce the partial schedule for the 2013-2014 Social Entrepreneurship in the 21st Century Speaker Series. This year’s series features a remarkable selection of social entrepreneurs and cutting edge changemakers who address the most pressing challenges of the 21st century. Reflecting the NYU Reynolds belief that social entrepreneurship is a meta-profession drawing on cross-disciplinary knowledge and practice, the series presents prominent social entrepreneurs and leaders from across the spectrum of public and professional sectors who will share their insights as cutting-edge, far reaching change makers. Now in its 7th year, the entire video collection of previous events can be downloaded from the podcast section of iTunes (search NYU Reynolds), on our website at: nyu.edu/Reynolds and on our YouTube Channel. More speakers to be added during the year so be sure to check back for updates.

About the NYU Reynolds Program in Social Entrepreneurship
The NYU Reynolds Program in Social Entrepreneurship is designed to encourage a new generation of leaders and participants in public service. This cross-disciplinary program serves not only as a model to other universities but as a realization of NYU’s commitment to being “a private university in the public service.” Reaching across 11 graduate and undergraduate schools at NYU, the program attracts, inspires and supports students to realize and implement sustainable and scalable solutions to society’s most intractable problems. The speaker series is one of many events and programs NYU Reynolds offers to the NYU community, broadening the social discourse and enriching university life.

Join us for this remarkable series. Events are open to NYU and the general public; however photo-ID may be required for entry to some venues. Space is limited and an RSVP is required, but does not guarantee seating. Please arrive early for all events to ensure seating. Walk-ins will be allowed entry ten minutes before the start of an event, pending seating availability. For more information, locations and to RSVP to the next event, please visit http://www.nyu.edu/reynolds/speaker_series/.
