

Benefits for Field Instructors

As an expression of the School's appreciation of your contribution to our program by providing field instruction to our students at your site, we are pleased to be able to offer benefits including:

- Current Field Instructors receive 25% tuition remission in the Ph.D. program and in Continuing Education programs (e.g., breakfast workshops, certificate programs);
- Employees of your agency who enroll in our part-time MSW program are eligible for a half-rate tuition scholarship;
- Special seminars and workshops at no cost;
- Field Instructors are appointed at the rank of Adjunct Lecturer. They are eligible for promotion to the rank of Adjunct Assistant Professor after the fourth year of service; and eligible for promotion to Adjunct Associate Professor after the eighth* year. *Effective 9.1.06
- Field Instructors appointed at the rank of Adjunct Lecturer, Adjunct Assistant or Adjunct Associate Professor receive the following privileges upon the issuance of their NYU ID card:
  - NYU gym membership (you must pay applicable membership fee);
  - Read-only access at Bobst Library;
  - Use of the Bobst bike rack;
  - Discount movie/theater tickets via Ticket Central;
  - A 15% discount at the NYU bookstore; and
  - Access to NYU's Kimmel Center.
