

Residence Hall Move Out

For your convenience, the Student Resource Center/Parents' Helpline has compiled this list as a starting point for your research. NYU does not have any relationship with these companies, and inclusion in this list does not constitute a recommendation or endorsement. Be sure to check with your residence hall or NYU Housing for more detailed information about move-out procedures.

TIPS FOR MOVE OUT 2009

We are often asked whether it is better to store belongings over the summer in New York or to mail or drive them home. The answer depends on your individual circumstances: the distance home, the amount of material to be moved, whether you prefer to spend money or time, whether your student will need access to belongings over the summer, and other factors. (Don't forget to think about moving back in August as well.) See below for a list of local shipping and storage companies.

Can you pool resources with other students? For instance, it might be cheaper to share a summer storage space with your future roommate. Be sure to communicate clearly about expectations in advance, and consider writing down your plans for cost or labor sharing now to avoid confusion later.

Lightly-used boxes can often be obtained for free or at low cost from local stores or by searching craigslist.org.

Residence Halls will collect unwanted electronics, clothes, home goods, food, and other items to be recycled or donated as part of the Green Apple Move Out from May 1 – 17 2009. See <http://www.nyu.edu/src/ask.src/gamo2009.pdf> for details.

Students should check with their Residence Hall staff for information about local parking, best hours for check out, short extensions of their move-out date (if necessary), and other issues. Find maps and contact information for your Hall at www.nyu.edu/housing/residence.halls/
