NYU StudyAbroad. Be there.

NYU College of Nursing
Buenos Aires, Argentina Winter Intersession 2009 Application

Submit your completed and signed application form to the Office of Global Programs, by September 23, 2009. Applicants will receive notification via e-mail approximately 2-3 weeks after this deadline. Applicants offered admission will be asked to confirm their enrollment in the program by submitting a signed Confirmation Form and $300 deposit to the Office of Global Programs by October 9, 2009. Admitted applicants will receive preparation materials from the College of Nursing once their confirmation form and deposit have been submitted.

STUDENT INFORMATION

Name:_____ NYU ID #:_____
first last

Date of Birth:_____ Gender (circle one): M F
MM/DD/YYYY

Mobile:_____ Email:_____

Current NYU School:_____ Level (circle one): Graduate Undergraduate

Course (circle one):

Nursing Issues and Trends within the Health Care Delivery System Global Perspectives of Child Health

My signature below certifies that all information provided above is complete and correct.

_____ _____
Student Signature Date

In a one (1) – two (2) page essay, please explain why you are interested in studying in Buenos Aires, Argentina. (Please type your response using 12 point "Times New Roman" font, and attach it to this application.)

"Nursing Issues and Trends within the Health Care Delivery System" Course Description: three credit hour course taught in Buenos Aires, Argentina from December 27, 2009 – January 16, 2010. Open to graduate and undergraduate dual-degree students only. Credits will be applied to either your Fall 2009 or Spring 2010 transcript depending on your selected semester in which to register the course. The course examines the delivery of health services as pertains to nurse's contribution using the social/cultural, historical, literary and scientific contexts.

"Global Perspectives on Child Health" Course Description: three credit hour course taught in Buenos Aires, Argentina from December 27, 2009 – January 16, 2010. No prerequisites. Suggested for undergraduate and graduate nursing students who may use this course as a nursing elective.

Buenos Aires, Argentina: NYU in Buenos Aires, our newest site abroad, offers you the exceptional opportunity to learn about the history and culture of Latin America while taking part in the lively activities of the day-to-day life of Argentina's capital city. After a decade of economic and political challenges, Argentina is experiencing renewed growth and prosperity. With its distinct European style, Buenos Aires, birthplace of the tango, is one of the largest port cities in the world and is considered the financial and cultural center of Argentina.

Further information:

For questions regarding applications, admissions, and deposits contact:

Julie Shurts, Assistant Director
NYU Office of Global Programs
110 East 14th Street, Lower Level
212-998-4433
julie.shurts@nyu.edu

For questions regarding applications, admissions, and deposits or for questions regarding program specifics such as academics, registration and housing contact:

Gail Wolfmeyer, Student Affairs Officer, NYU College of Nursing
726 Broadway, 10th Floor
212-992-7653
gail.wolfmeyer@nyu.edu