

June 25-August 6, 2011

NYU Summer in Prague

Find yourself at the crossroads of Europe.

Academics

Courses revolve around modern Czech and Central European literature and culture; Central European cinema; the art and architecture of Prague; Central European and Czech history, politics, and economics. An introductory intensive Czech language class is also available. All content courses are taught in English.

Yanni Kotsonis, Program Director

e-mail: summer.in.prague@nyu.edu

SAMPLE COURSES:

Elementary Czech

Russian Expansionism

Advanced Russian

ACADEMIC LEVEL: UNDERGRADUATE/GRADUATE

Excursions

Weekend field trips may include tours of small medieval villages and castles in Southern Bohemia and the World War II transport camp Terezín. Students meet with members of the new government, artists, and writers—and experience life after the Velvet Revolution.

Housing

Students live in an NYU residence hall just a short distance from the NYU Prague academic center and the center of Prague.

TO APPLY

DOWNLOAD THE APPLICATION AT

www.nyu.edu/summer/2011/abroad/prague

call: 212-998-4433

“The program was great, and I must say that the academics, in particular, were really outstanding. Some of my favorite courses to date!”

New York University is an affirmative action/equal opportunity institution. Produced by Advertising and Publications, New York University.

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY

Priority Application Deadline: March 1, 2011