

June 30-August 11, 2012

Arts & Science

Summer in Beijing

Spend this summer exploring the Forbidden City.

“Amazing! Every day since I’ve been gone I wish I were back.”

Academics

Arts & Science Summer in Beijing combines classroom study of the Chinese language, culture, and society with field trips. It offers intensive Chinese language courses from beginner through advanced levels, giving special attention to listening and speaking.

Shiqi Liao, Program Director

call: 212-998-8198

e-mail: summer.in.beijing@nyu.edu

SAMPLE COURSES:

Elementary Chinese I

Contemporary Chinese Culture and Society

Advanced Chinese I

ACADEMIC LEVEL: UNDERGRADUATE

Excursions

Weekly excursions include visits, within the city of Beijing, to museums, temples, and palaces and evening outings to Peking Opera and Chinese folk music performances. A long weekend trip to a destination outside Beijing is also included.

Housing

Students reside at Peking University’s dorm for foreign students. Two students share a 2-bedroom apartment-style suite, with his or her own air-conditioned room, shared living room and bathroom. Students can eat at the dorm’s restaurant or Peking University’s on-campus cafeteria.

TO APPLY

www.nyu.edu/summer/2012/abroad/beijing

call: 212-998-4433

