

June 16-July 26, 2012

Arts & Science

Summer in London

Experience the elegance and diversity of London.

New York University is an affirmative action/equal opportunity institution. Produced by Advertising and Publications, New York University.

“It was fun and very educational, both in and outside the classroom.”

Academics

Arts & Science Summer in London offers courses in British literature, art and architecture, Shakespeare in performance, and contemporary English politics. Courses are taught by NYU faculty and by British university professors. Fieldwork and guided excursions are incorporated into courses.

Catherine Robson, Program Director

e-mail: summer.in.london@nyu.edu

SAMPLE COURSES:

Shakespeare and Elizabethan Stage

Contemporary Political Culture of Britain

British Art and Architecture in London

ACADEMIC LEVEL: UNDERGRADUATE

Excursions

Students may take field trips to Stonehenge, Shakespeare's birthplace in Stratford-upon-Avon, Salisbury Cathedral, Wilton House, Parliament, the New Globe Theatre, Charles Dickens's house, the Victoria and Albert Museum, Sigmund Freud's house, the National Gallery, Somerset House, and Poet's Corner at Westminster Abbey.

Housing

Students live in a newly renovated residence just off Russell Square, within walking distance of the shops, supermarket, and cinema of the Brunswick Center; the public parks and gardens of Mecklenburgh Square; and all forms of transportation. The apartments are shared suites with bedrooms arranged around a community area/kitchen.

TO APPLY

www.nyu.edu/summer/2012/abroad/london

call: 212-998-4433

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY

Priority Application Deadline: March 1, 2012