

June 23-July 21, 2012

Arts & Science

Writers in Paris

Live the writer's life in Paris.

"I loved the amazing writers who were teaching us, and I loved being in Paris."

Academics

Students who participate in Writers in Paris choose to focus on either poetry or fiction and attend daily writing workshops and craft seminars. Students are mentored by internationally acclaimed writers and attend readings and special seminars led by visiting writers and editors. Students work intensively to generate new writing and attend a lively series of readings, lectures, literary walking tours, and special events.

Deborah Landau, Program Director

call: 212-998-8816

e-mail: writers.in.paris@nyu.edu

COURSES:

Writers in Paris: Fiction (8 points)

Writers in Paris: Poetry (8 points)

ACADEMIC LEVEL: UNDERGRADUATE

Excursions

Program activities include literary walking tours of Paris as well as visits to parks, restaurants, cafés, and historic neighborhoods where famous writers have lived and worked.

Housing

Students are housed in single studios with kitchenettes in the Résidence République, operated by Les Estudines and located in the 11th arrondissement, near Place de la Bastille. There are laundry facilities and a small gym on-site. The residence is also just a short, 15-minute walk to Notre Dame and a quick Métro ride to all sites within Paris.

TO APPLY

www.nyu.edu/summer/2012/abroad/writersinparis

call: 212-998-4433

