ACTIVITIES FOR STUDENTS WITH SIBLINGS (9:00am to 12pm)
Kimmel Center for University Life, 60 Washington Square South, Commuter Lounge, 2nd Floor
(NOTE NEW LOCATION)

While parents attend the academic programs, NYU students with siblings are encouraged to explore the city with their siblings and/or stop by the Sibling Breakfast for a complimentary continental breakfast and attend a movie screening.

Movie start time of “Karate Kid” is 10:00am. Although staff will be on hand, we ask that NYU students accompany their siblings since no childcare will be provided. Space is limited, and we ask that current students attend only if accompanied by their siblings.
LUNCH AT NYU DINING HALLS OR ON YOUR OWN (11am to 3pm)
Hayden, Third North, Palladium and Weinstein (downstairs)
Experience a variety of delicious menu options prepared by NYU Dining Services. Enjoy an array of foods such as pizza, stir-fry, salad bar, home-style cooking, and vegetarian meals. Meals are served all-you-care-to-eat style in our residence dining halls. NYU families will receive a discounted door rate of $7.00 per person at the residence hall dining facilities listed above or a 20% discount on purchases at the Weinstein Food Court. PEETS Coffee will also be open, located in Weinstein Hall. Students who have meal plans should use their meal plan as usual.

A Shabbat lunch will also be available at the Weinstein Kosher Eatery. Advance reservations are required; please contact the Bronfman Center at 212-998-4123.

Want to experience dining in the Village? Invite your son or daughter to take you to one of their favorite new places around NYU using their Campus Cash. http://www.nyu.edu/nyucard/merchant.locations/

AFTERNOON WORKSHOPS: (12noon-4pm)
The following programs will provide you with an opportunity to explore additional resources and opportunities available for students at NYU. Due to limited time, we encourage family members to split up their attendance between the various workshops. Unless otherwise indicated, most workshops will last about 45 minutes. Open Houses are available for drop-in during the time listed. All workshops have limited spaces and entrance is on a first-come-first-serve basis.

• Commuter Student Services – Open House (12noon to 3pm)
  Kimmel Center, 60 Washington Square South, 2nd Floor, Suite 210
  During this open house, parents will have an opportunity to meet administrators and student leader to learn about resources, activities and support for first-year commuter students. www.nyu.edu/src/commuters

• Off-Campus Student Services Info Session (12:30pm, 1pm, 1:30pm and 2pm)
  Kimmel Center, 60 Washington Square South, 2nd Floor, Suite 210
  Eventually your son or daughter may decide to move off-campus to get his/her first New York City apartment. The apartment hunting process can be challenging and even overwhelming for native New Yorkers. There are various pitfalls and hazards to avoid when navigating New York's complex rental market. To learn more about the resources provided by the office, come to this Open House where Off-Campus Housing Office representatives will be happy to answer your questions. www.nyu.edu/housing/offcampus

• Your Student’s Health and Wellness at NYU (1 to 3pm)
  Student Health Center, 726 Broadway at Waverly Place, 3rd Floor
  At the Student Health Center (SHC) we believe good health is a vital part of student academic achievement and fulfilling one's potential. Hear about the services provided to students, get general insurance and medical questions answered, and take a tour of our facilities. Opportunities will also be available to speak privately to an NYU mental health professional regarding your student during 15-minute walk-in sessions. Please note that if your son or daughter is already seeing a counselor or medical provider, we will not be able to specifically talk about his or her case; however, we can provide you with examples of the type of services and resources that are available. www.nyu.edu/health

• Office of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgendered Student Services (1-2:30 pm)
  Kimmel Center, 60 Washington Square South, 6th Floor, Suite 602
  Please join us for a panel discussion on being a parent or an ally to lesbian, gay, bisexual, or transgender (LGBT) youth and students. You will hear from parents of NYU LGBT students and other parents with children that identify as LGBT. Our panelists are happy to answer any questions you may have about LGBT life at NYU, as well as any concerns about New York City or the LGBT community at large. Join us for this rich dialogue! The program will include an informal post-panel reception and open house. All are welcome. For more information about NYU's LGBT Office, visit our website at www.nyu.edu/lgbt

• Presidential Town Hall: NYU The Global Network University 2:30–3:30 (NEW EVENT)
  Skirball Center for the Performing Arts, 566 LaGuardia Place at Washington Square South
  Just as NYU's founders chose in 1831 to establish NYU "in and of the city," NYU is now "in and of the world" in a way that defines and exemplifies something that has not existed before: a global network university. With over 12 study abroad sites today and 16 on six continents to be open within the next few years, NYU leads all universities in students studying abroad. Join President John Sexton as he discusses his vision for the Global Network University and NYU's role in preparing its students to become engaged and contributing global citizens.
  Limited Seating. Tickets available at Ticket Central beginning at Noon.

• Getting Frank About Freshmen (3pm only)
  Cantor Film Center, 36 E. 8th Street at University Place
  Associate Vice President for Student Affairs Tom Ellett will moderate a panel of NYU students who will reflect on their first-year experience. Both the panel and the Associate Vice President will offer practical advice on how parents can best support their first-year student.

PARENTS RECEPTION (4 - 5:15pm)
Kimmel Center for University Life, 60 Washington Square South
Parents, families and students are invited to attend an afternoon drop-in reception co-hosted by New York University President John Sexton and the NYU Parents Committee. Music will be provided by NYU student ensembles. Note that the reception will be held on 2 floors in the Kimmel Center and guests are invited by school/program:

ON YOUR OWN EVENING OPTIONS:

Saturday evening is on your own, but to help you with your planning, we have provided you with a number of resources that may be of assistance should you like to see a show or other performance.

- Skirball Center for the Performing Arts
  566 LaGuardia Place at Washington Square South (Side entrance to the Kimmel Center)
  For show dates and times, go to: http://www.skirballcenter.nyu.edu/

- NYU Ticket Central (10am-6pm) - NOTE SPECIAL UPDATED HOURS
  566 LaGuardia Place at Washington Square South (Side entrance to the Kimmel Center)
  Ticket Central is the professional ticketing services clearinghouse exclusively serving the University community. It is NYU's source for discounted tickets to the movies, Broadway and Off-Broadway shows, sporting events, musical concerts, sight-seeing tours, and more.

  For more information and to see what is available for Parent’s Day, visit: www.nyuidu/ticketcentral/specials

  IMPORTANT: Your student will be required to reserve and/or pick up anything distributed by Ticket Central.

A variety of performances, lectures and other events may also be available throughout the weekend. Click on the calendars below to search programs while you are on campus.

Forbidden NYU, Saturday, October 23, 2010 / 7:30pm
Skirball Center for the Performing Arts, 566 LaGuardia Place
The College of Arts and Sciences Theatre is proud to present our annual performance, Forbidden NYU, or for short, FNYU! FNYU, based off the hit Forbidden Broadway, is a satirical musical that lovingly mocks all that is NYU. This year is the 11th Anniversary and there will be lots laughs and surprises the entire night. Come see NYU students performing perennial favorites such as Seasons of Loans, If I Were a Tisch Man, and All I Care About Are Hugs.

Limited Seating. Tickets will be available on Saturday at Ticket Central during Box Office hours.
