Financial Aid Information and Instructions

To be considered for any type of financial assistance, you must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). NYU recommends that you submit the FAFSA electronically from FAFSA on the Web at www.fafsa.ed.gov. The University's institution code is 002785. You may also request the FAFSA by contacting the Office of Financial Aid, New York University, 25 West Fourth Street, New York, NY 10012-1119; (212) 998-4444.

Deadline: It is recommended that you submit the FAFSA by March 1. However, applications for financial aid will continue to be reviewed as funds remain available.

FULL-TIME AND PART-TIME STUDENTS

GRADUATE GALLATIN SCHOLARSHIP
A Gallatin scholarship may be awarded to eligible students and is based on financial need and merit. To apply: Check “Yes” in item number 2C of the Application for Admission. You must also submit the FAFSA.

LOANS
Student loans are administered through the Office of Financial Aid. To apply: Submit the FAFSA.

THE FEDERAL WORK-STUDY PROGRAM
The Federal Work-Study Program, for students enrolled for at least 6 credits, combines federal and University resources to fund a limited number of part-time jobs, usually in campus offices and organizations. You are considered for Federal Work-Study when you apply for financial aid.

THE STUDENT EMPLOYMENT PROGRAM
A list is maintained of current jobs available on and off campus for students who need to cover their graduate study expenses through employment. Students must be enrolled for a minimum of 6 credits to apply for student employment. To apply: Visit the Student Employment and Internship Center at 5 Washington Place, 2nd Floor; (212) 998-4757.

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY PAYMENT PLANS
The Deferred Payment Plan is an installment agreement between the student and New York University that allows students to extend tuition payments over a semester. This plan is available to any full- or part-time student registering for at least 6 credits. You pay 50 percent of the net amount due for the current term at registration and the remainder plus interest in two installments. To apply: Contact the Office of the Bursar, New York University, 25 West Fourth Street, New York, NY 10012-1119, (212) 998-2800, or visit their Web site at www.nyu.edu/bursar.

The NYU Monthly Payment Plan is not a loan program; thus, there are no interest payments or finance charges. Administered by Academic Management Services (AMS), the plan allows tuition and on-campus housing payments to be paid in 12 monthly installments. There is an application fee. To apply: Contact AMS directly at (800) 635-0120 for application and deadline information.

BENEFITS FOR VETERANS
In many cases, a variety of educational benefits are available to veterans, their families, and in-service personnel. For further information: Contact the Office of the University Registrar, New York University, 25 West Fourth Street; (212) 998-4800.
FULL-TIME STUDENTS

FOREIGN LANGUAGE AND AREA STUDIES (FLAS) FELLOWSHIPS
These fellowships provide tuition, fees, and a stipend to full-time graduate students who are studying a modern foreign language as part of their academic program in preparation for a career that will utilize their language studies. The fellowships are administered for the U.S. Department of Education by the three designated National Resource Centers at New York University. The centers and the eligible languages of award are as follows: the Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies (CLACS)—Amer-Indian, Haitian Creole, Portuguese, and Spanish; the Center for European Studies (CES)—French, German, Italian, Portuguese, Scandinavian, and Spanish; and the Hagop Kevorkian Center—Arabic, Hebrew, Persian, and Turkish. Applicants must be U.S. citizens and must enroll in one year of language classes during the academic year. Students in all disciplines are eligible to apply; summer FLAS awards are also available.

To apply: Contact the appropriate National Resource Center at NYU (as listed above) for details.

CREATIVE ARTS TEAM GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS
The Creative Arts Team (CAT) is a professional educational theatre company in residence within the Gallatin School. Actors/teachers conduct issue-oriented and curriculum-based drama workshops and productions for students from prekindergarten through high school in public schools, Head Start centers, prisons, and shelters throughout the five boroughs of New York City.

CAT offers a limited number of graduate assistant positions, which provide NYU tuition remission and a small stipend. The positions are creative (or programmatic) and administrative, ranging from actor/teacher to marketing assistant or operations scheduler. To apply: Contact the Creative Arts Team at (212) 998-7380 or visit their Web site at www.nyu.edu/gallatin/creativearts.

RESIDENT ASSISTANTSHIPS AND RESIDENCE LIFE GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS
Resident assistants and residence life graduate assistants live in the residence halls and are responsible for organizing, implementing, and evaluating social and educational activities. They also serve as peer counselors and sources of information for hall residents. Resident assistants’ compensation is room and board. Graduate assistants assume additional administrative and limited supervisory responsibilities; therefore, in addition to room and board, they receive a stipend. To apply: Contact the Office of Residence Life at reslife.ra.selection@nyu.edu or reslife.ga.selection@nyu.edu, or write to the Office of Housing and Residence Life, New York University, 33 Washington Square West, New York, NY 10011-9154; (212) 998-4311. Students should contact the Office of Residence Life by December 1.

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY OPPORTUNITY FELLOWSHIP
The New York University Opportunity Fellowship is a University-wide fellowship established to provide support for those students least represented in graduate education. The fellowship is highly competitive and is awarded to a limited number of students who demonstrate high academic achievement, scholarship, and financial need. A special application is not required for the fellowship. To be eligible: Submit a completed application for admission with supporting credentials by February 1; indicate on the application that you are applying for financial assistance. You must also submit the FAFSA.

NEW YORK STATE TUITION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (TAP)
The TAP grant is available to full-time New York State residents who demonstrate financial need. To apply: Complete all sections of the FAFSA and be sure to complete the State Section indicating that you are a state resident.

PART-TIME STUDENTS
To accommodate those who are part-time students, the Gallatin School offers a number of scholarships to students registered for fewer than 12 credits. To be eligible for part-time financial aid, students must be enrolled for a minimum of 6 credits. To apply: Complete the FAFSA and check “Yes” in item 2C of the Application for Admission.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS
International students are generally not eligible for federal or state financial aid. However, several private loan options are available for international students. Citibank’s CitiAssist Global is a private loan program for international students from all countries. The annual loan limit for this program is U.S.$15,000 for full-time NYU international graduate students. For further information, contact Citibank at 1-888-812-5030 or visit the NYU Office of Financial Aid Web site at www.nyu.edu/financial.aid/international.html.

International students may also take advantage of the NYU Monthly Payment Plan administered by Academic Management Services. Please see the description of the plan in the “FULL-TIME AND PART-TIME STUDENTS” section, under “NEW YORK UNIVERSITY PAYMENT PLANS,” for details.
Additional Financial Aid Information

WORLD WIDE WEB

New York University
www.nyu.edu/financial.aid

American Association of University Women (AAUW) Educational Foundation
www.aauw.org

CollegeNET Mach25
www.collegenet.com/mach25

Council of Graduate Schools
www.cgsnet.org

FastWeb
www.fastweb.com

FinAid
www.finaid.org

The Foundation Center
(located at 79 Fifth Avenue, 2nd Floor; [212] 620-4230)
www.fdncenter.org

Global Fund for Women
www.globalfundforwomen.org

Hispanic Scholarship Fund
www.hsf.net

National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators
www.nasfaa.org

Sallie Mae Online Scholarship Service
scholarships.salliemae.com

U.S. Department of Education
www.ed.gov

FOR INFORMATION ON UNITED STATES FEDERAL STUDENT AID PROGRAMS:

Federal Student Aid Information Center
1-800-4-FED-AID