Questions to Linda Mills

1. In what ways is the global network expected to contribute to the improvement of NYU as an institution of higher education?
2. What is the ideal academic model for the global network?
3. What is regarded as the ideal ratio of international to local students at each of the three portals?
4. What are the standards and processes for admission across the global network?
5. How does NYU's global network intend to deal with different levels of academic preparation? Different English language skills?
6. What is the business model? What is the financial structure of the global network, and what kind of stability does it have?
7. What are the measures of success for the global network?
8. What are main challenges faced thus far in the development of the global network and what are the key lessons learned?
