

C-FSC Resolution Regarding Standing Committee on Diversity

Approved 12/8/15

At the December 8, 2015 meeting of the C-Faculty Senators Council, the Council approved the following resolution:

Resolution:

Whereas the recent “Listening Session” at NYU attracted more than 1,000 participants and revealed what President Sexton afterwards identified as the “criticisms, pain and disappointment” voiced by NYU’s community of students, faculty, and staff from historically under-represented and disenfranchised populations and,

Whereas there appears to be a significant gap between NYU’s stated commitment to diversity and inclusiveness and the reality experienced by under-represented populations at NYU, the C-FSC hereby resolves that:

The C-FSC form a “Standing Committee on Diversity at NYU” to study ways in which the continuing contract faculty at NYU can best address and enhance the reality of diversity and inclusiveness at New York University.
